Last Sunday...

Pastor Joseph began a new lesson entitled “The Trial of Faith”, #38 in our ongoing series of Teaching the Apostolic Faith. The primary verse is 1 Peter 1:7, which says: “That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ” (KJV). We started off with a discussion of purification of gold by fire. The fire is good for the gold, but bad for the impurities (the “dross”). We analyzed the false Gnostic doctrine, which says that all physical matter is bad or evil. Thus, in that view, gold = “spirit” and dross = “all physical matter.” Because of that, Gnosticism says Jesus was not really a physical man. It also teaches against the doctrine of physical resurrection in a glorified body, since (supposedly) all physical things are evil. However, the Scriptures teach us the opposite: God sent an angel to retrieve Moses’ lifeless physical body (see Jude), and God prevented the lifeless physical body of Jesus from suffering decay during the three days in the tomb, and it was used again to house (tabernacle) our Messiah and Lord! No, physical does not automatically mean “bad” or “evil.” Sin is what is bad; not physical matter, per se. This is part of why the Old Timers in Pentecost preached against having your body cremated after death. Think on it!

Last Wednesday...

Pastor Joseph preached “Seven Women and One Man” from Isaiah 4:1. This verse describes the situation which will prevail in Jerusalem after wicked men of Judah fall in battle (one fulfillment will be in the build up to the Millennial Kingdom). For a while, so few eligible men will be left that “seven women,” i.e., a large number, will take hold of “one man,” begging him to marry them. The “reproach” of which they speak is that of childlessness (54:4). We also drew some inferences from this verse via symbolism: Both the true church and false churches are typified in the Bible as women, such as the Bride and as virgins (wise or foolish) and even as prostitutes (wicked churches with false-doctrine). Today, some “churches” are like the seven women: They don’t want the Groom’s bread (word of true doctrine) or His apparel (righteousness and holiness)!
