

Christian Apostolic Church Bulletin – April 8, 2007

Last Sunday AM	Last Sunday PM	Last Wednesday
Pastor Joseph taught the second installment in a lesson called “Brotherhood in Crisis.” The title has a double meaning. Not only is there a lack of proper understanding of Christian brotherhood, but also the cited biblical passages teach how the Christian brotherhood should behave during times of crisis. American cultural practice is backwards to the biblical teachings for the Christian brotherhood. Instead of fighting for one’s rights, we’re supposed to sacrifice our own rights for the benefit of others. Instead of leaving the church when something is wrong, we’re supposed to stay, and resolve the matter according to Jesus’ words in Matthew 18. Then, instead of a hurt victim leaving the brotherhood, either the trespasser repents, or else the trespasser is put out of the assembly. Many times people have the opinion that withholding tithes and/or staying away from the church services, is the proper way to say one doesn’t agree with something that is going wrong. But that is not the biblical method. We are the Body of Christ. Imagine if one’s good body parts began to abandon the body just because cancer or sickness was present! Abandoning the Christian brotherhood is the wrong way to deal with crisis.	Elder David Harris preached using Proverbs 30:1-5 as his main text God can do anything. He can ascend or descend on any problem we have. There is nothing God can’t do. He can descend upon us and work miracles. He can reach into our bodies and turn things around. In II Kings 2, Elisha asked Elijah, “Let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.” After Elisha watched Elijah ascend by a whirlwind into heaven, he picked up the mantle (cloak) that had fallen from Elijah and thus received the double portion of anointing. Nothing is too hard for God. We need to focus on things God can do for us. He can save; He can heal; He can deliver. The power of God wants to descend on us. On the Day of Pentecost the disciples were with one accord in one place. The Holy Ghost descended down as of a rushing mighty wind. God’s power is so real. Following the sermon the spirit of God moved mightily. There was a prayer line. Many were healed & blessed.	Youth Service! Elder David Harris preached using Daniel 3:15-18 as his text. Just as a king tried to talk Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego into serving other gods, so will the devil will try to talk us into serving other gods. The devil puts things in young people’s minds and makes it look well. Be ye separate. Do not act like the world. Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were “not careful” to answer the king that they would not bow down and worship his god. Thus we should not be careful to answer the world. If people tempt you to do wrong, keep your mind on God and what He wants. Don’t hang around them unless you are witnessing to them. Don’t let the world win you. Present yourself always to be what God wants you to be. He wants us to worship and serve only Him. Young people, walk with the Master. Others are watching you.

Note: The answer to last week’s Bible Trivia Question was: Timothy found in Hebrews 13:24.

Tips	For Families	Send in your tip today! news@clarksburgcac.com
New Bike If you purchase a new bike for your child, place his/her picture inside the handle bar before placing the grips on. If the bike is ever stolen and later recovered, you can remove the grip and there is your proof who actually owns the bike.	Flexible Vacuum To get something out of a heat register or under the fridge, add an empty paper towel roll or empty gift wrap roll to your vacuum hose. It can be bent or flattened to get into those narrow openings.
Every week we’ll share two or three tips. Have a good tip you’d like to share? Submit it to Sis. Rhonda DeMoss, either on paper or by email at news@clarksburgcac.com

Fun	HUMOR	Send in your funny stories today! news@clarksburgcac.com
A father wanted to read a magazine but was interrupted by his little girl. She wanted to know what the United States looked like. Finally, he tore a sheet out of his new magazine on which was printed a map of the country. Tearing it into small pieces for each state, he gave it to his daughter, and said, “See if you can put this together. This will show you our whole country today.” After a few minutes, she handed him the map correctly fitted together with tape. The father was surprised and asked how she had finished so quickly. “Oh,” she said, “on the other side of the paper is a picture of Jesus. When I got all of Jesus back where He belonged, then our country just came together.”
Little Bobby: “Mom, why was nothing said about the others that Jesus raised from the dead together with Lazarus?” Mom: “Oh dear, now were did you hear that there were any others raised together with Lazarus?” Little Bobby: “Cause the preacher said Lazarus came fourth [forth]!”

March, 2007: Mud bogs beware – WV Boys are on the loose

- Top: One can’t tell who it is in behind the helmet, but that’s Jonas (a.k.a. Cubby) Carter, the Todd’s grandson that we’ve been praying for, who was burned so badly. We praise the Lord that he is finally getting back to his former playful self. He is seen here in full mud bog attire.
- Lower: Here is Austin, another of the Todd’s grandsons, also in full mud bog attire. Yes, that is the boys’ pony in the background. Anyone who would like to join the Todd’s in having a great time in the country, is officially invited to contact them, set a date, and then visit them. You will love it!
