

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM
Elder Charles Hoskins preached “Joy Unspeakable and Full of Glory” using I Peter 1:8 as his main text. Joy unspeakable will rebound and spring up in our soul. We live in a clouded day; an untraditional and a day of compromise; a day of political corruptness. People reject the joy unspeakable that is full of glory. We need a surplus; the Lord is our surplus. There are times in our lives when we walk through dry places but the joy of the Lord is our strength. We can be fruit-bearers through joy unspeakable. God allows our minds to receive refreshing joy. There are going to be pressures in life but we can rebound. Weeping endureth for the night but joy comes in the morning. To know the love of Christ which passes all knowledge is joy unspeakable. In Him dwells the fullness of the Godhead, complete in Jesus. We need to learn to pray in everything. God is there whatever we go through. When we go through storms we don’t have to worry. God will give us joy unspeakable.	Pastor Joseph preached “Give Me Revival” using I Samuel 1: 1-18 as his text. Hannah was desperate. She wanted a child so badly that she prayed and wept in anguish. God gave her a son, named Samuel which means “the Lord has heard.” Let us pray for revival like Hannah prayed for a son. When Zion travails, sons and daughters will be born. Jesus gave us power to be His witnesses. When we speak, our words will be anointed. The Lord is so good to us. But unless we have revival, something is missing. “The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.” (James 5:16). God will open doors for revival. We need to seek God for souls; we need to fast and pray for revival. When someone makes a mistake against us, just get up and go on. When Hannah was praying she was accused of being drunken. But she didn’t get angry. She kept a right spirit. We need to fast and pray for souls; for our family members to come to God. Lord, help us to live to show our children the truth. Let’s be desperate!

Note: Unfortunately, there was no mid-week Bible study this past Wednesday, due to the snow and bad road conditions.

During a visit to the mental asylum, a visitor asked the director, "How do you determine whether or not a patient should be institutionalized?" "Well," said the director, "we fill up a bathtub, and then we offer a teaspoon, a teacup, and a bucket to the patient and ask him or her to empty the bathtub." "Oh, I understand," said the visitor. "A normal person would use the bucket because it's bigger than the spoon or the teacup." "No," said the director, "A normal person would pull the plug. Do you want a bed near the window?" Little Johnny's kindergarten class was on a field trip to their local police station where they saw pictures tacked to a bulletin board of the 10 most wanted criminals. One of the youngsters pointed to a picture and asked if it really was the photo of a wanted person. "Yes," said the policeman. "The detectives want very badly to capture him." Little Johnny asked, "Why didn't you keep him when you took his picture?"
