

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday PM
Elder Charles Hoskins preached “Kiss Your Past Goodbye” using Romans 8:31 and Philippians 3:13. If God be for us, who can be against us. When situations in life are difficult to handle, we should run to God, not away from Him. We need to depend on Jesus. We need to be focused and not allow the weights and cares to hinder us. We need to put mistakes behind us. Paul brought persecution to God’s people. He had a thorn in his flesh but he had to forget about the past. He asked God to take this from him. Sometimes we have to push beyond the past. We need to focus on Jesus by removing the clutter from our life. The weights of life can pull us down. We need to seek the things which are of God. The prodigal son did his own thing in his own way. But there came a day he realized he needed to come home. His father accepted him. God will do the same for us if we will only seek Him. We need to forget our past and start looking toward Heaven.	There was a great move of God in this service, and Pastor Joseph felt led to have Elder David Harris Jr bring forth a word from the Lord. Elder Harris preached and exhorted briefly under a powerful anointing of the Spirit. Elder Harris was blessed with great faith, and the Lord worked wonders. A family of guests in attendance that night was greatly moved, and they prayed and were touched by God. The husband was laid out under the power of God. The wife sought God was touched. Their adult son received the baptism of the Spirit! The dad is currently investigating the contrast between the baptismal formula invented by the Catholics (using three titles instead of Jesus name) and BIBLICAL baptism in Jesus name! Let’s hold this family up in prayer that God’s Word will be opened to them so that they will see that obeying Acts 2:38 (and Acts 8:16, 10:48, 19:5, and 22:16) does not contradict Matthew 28:19 at all, but rather fulfills its command.	Pastor Joseph taught and preached a message entitled “On Guard” drawing on wording from 1 Cor. 4:1-17. The Apostle Paul, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, described himself and other ministers of Christ in service with him as “stewards” of the mysteries of God (4:1). The original word for steward (oikonomos in Greek) literally means “custodian” or “one who is the law of the house.” “Mysteries” refer to those truths of God which cannot be discovered by man but must be revealed by God (see Eph. 3:3). As ministers we are the custodians of God’s revealed truths. So be on guard. Don’t be like the Corinthians, who had a tendency to drift into doubtful doctrines and to waste their time in strife and division. There are many voices in the world, and even from beyond this realm (voices of demons). Don’t believe them! Trust in the Word of God. His Word is true!

A man was being tailgated by a stressed out woman on a busy boulevard. Suddenly, the light turned yellow, just in front of him. He did the right thing, stopping at the crosswalk, even though he could have beaten the red light by accelerating through the intersection. The tailgating woman was furious and honked her horn, screaming in frustration as she missed her chance to get through the intersection, dropping her cell phone and makeup. As she was still in mid-rant, she heard a tap on her window and looked up into the face of a very serious police officer. The officer ordered her to exit her car with her hands up. He took her to the police station where she was searched, finger printed, photographed, and placed in a holding cell. After a couple of hours, a policeman approached the cell and opened the door. She was escorted back to the booking desk where the arresting officer was waiting with her personal effects. He said, "I'm very sorry for this mistake. You see, I pulled up behind your car while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you, and cussing a blue streak at him. I noticed the 'What Would Jesus Do' bumper sticker, the 'Choose Life' license frame, the 'Follow Me to Sunday School' bumper sticker, and the chrome-plated Christian fish emblem on the trunk. Naturally, I assumed you had stolen the car." A little boy was overheard praying: "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."
