

Sunday through Wednesday – “School’s Out” Revival

Evangelist David Taylor, who is a very skillful Gospel Illusionist and an excellent Ventriloquist, ministered in a very amazing way during CAC’s “School’s Out” Revival for kids and adults. The revival went from Sunday through Wednesday, with Wednesday’s service also hosting a concert by the band known as “Highest Praise” which did an excellent job of singing/ministry (Country Gospel-style).

Sunday PM

On this night, Bro. Taylor not only amazed the child in us all, but also preached powerfully to the whole church a message entitled “Beauty and The Beast” using I Samuel 25:1-3. Abigail (“beauty”) was beautiful and of good understanding. Her husband Nabal (“the beast”) was a churlish and evil man. We live in an angry, violent world, but there is still beauty in the Lord. Nabal refused to give staples to David’s servants who had helped Nabal selflessly. David was very angry, and he and 400 of his men drew their swords to go to the house of Nabal. Abigail made haste when she heard of David’s anger. She knew that if she stayed where she was, she and all her house would die. She didn’t remain with and in her problem. She prepared gifts of food and went to meet David, knowing the one to whom she was running, had a great future. When she met David, she fell prostrate before him and gave him gifts. David and his men put away their swords. Nabal went from a drunken stupor into a coma, and his heart became as stone and he died. Abigail later became the wife of David. Don’t stay with “the beast” Don’t live with and in your problem! When things go wrong, don’t think negatively. God will take care of our problems if we will worship Him. When you come to church, don’t have a pity party. Come to worship God, and let Him help you!

A burglar broke into a house one night. He looked for valuables, and was picking up a CD player to place in his sack, when a strange, disembodied voice said from the dark, "Baby is watching you." He nearly jumped out of his skin, clicked off his flashlight out, and froze. He heard nothing more. After a bit, he shook it off. Promising himself a long vacation afterward, he clicked the light back on to search for more valuables. Just as he pulled the stereo out so he could disconnect the wires, as clearly as a bell he heard, "Baby is watching you." Fearfully, he shined his light around frantically, looking for the source of the voice. Finally, in the corner of the room, his flashlight beam came to rest on a parrot. "Did you say that?" he hissed at the parrot. "Yep," the parrot confessed, and then squawked, "I'm just trying to warn you." The burglar relaxed. "Warn me, huh? Who are you to be warning me?" "Big Bird," replied the parrot. "Big Bird!" The burglar laughed, "Who names their parrot 'Big Bird'?" The parrot promptly answered, "It's not so strange. They named the 140-pound Rottweiler 'Baby'." Upon discovering her first gray hair, one mom immediately wrote to her parents, "Dear Dad and Mom, You saw my first steps. You might want to experience this with me too." She taped the offending hair to the paper and mailed it. A few days later she received the following response, "Thank you, but I just want you to know that this is not the first gray hair you've given us!"
