

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM
Elder Charles Hoskins preached “Walking With God” using Genesis 5:22-24. Enoch walked with God for 300 years. He pleased God. There was a fellowship; he had a desire to please God. We need to set our minds and affections on pleasing Jesus. Enoch was translated and didn’t see death. Before his translation he lived a life pleasing to God. There were trials that Enoch had to face just as we do today. But God will take care of us. We need to walk and commune with God just as Enoch did. Today there are some people who call themselves Apostolic but yet they have worldliness. They are guided by their own passion. We need to pray for others. To build our faith, we need to pray, fast, and commune with God. Let us not be just spectators, but participants. Pay attention to the love of God. We should be able to make a decision between right and wrong. God will guide you in His word. The prayer of faith shall heal the sick. Be earnest in prayer. We have great power in God.	Associate Pastor David Harris preached “From Nazareth to Capernaum” using Luke 4:14, 18-22. Jesus taught in the synagogues at Nazareth, and the eyes of all those in attendance were upon him. It was hard to know that a carpenter or carpenter’s son could have been so wise in his teachings. They said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?” The scribes and Pharisees in the synagogue were filled with wrath because of this Jesus. He had to escape Nazareth and venture into Capernaum and teach those who would listen. Jesus healed sick bodies, cast out demons, and did wondrous miracles in Capernaum. With a little faith and the name of Jesus we can mess up the devil’s day for sure, without harming the physical man for whom we are praying. We need to get from where we are to where we are needed, just as Jesus did when he left Nazareth and went to Capernaum. Let us go forth with faith.

Community of the Redeemed

Fun HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A Sunday school helper was delivering a station wagon full of kids home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children began discussing the dog's duties. "They use him to keep crowds back," said one youngster. "No," said another, "he's just for good luck." A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrant."

A woman churchgoer stopped outside to chat with friends after services. Suddenly she remembered she had left her purse on the seat. When she returned, it was gone. Soon she learned that the minister had found it and had picked it up. "I thought I'd better hold on to it," he explained. "Some of our people in the congregation are of such simple faith as to perhaps believe it might be an answer to a prayer!"
