

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM
Associate Pastor David Harris preached “The Sixth Sense” using Genesis 17:3. The sixth sense we all need to have is feeling the presence of the Lord. We need to know definitely that God is in this place. We don’t ever want to lose this sense and thus be unable to know the Lord is in our midst. The Lord will do what He says He will do. We need to have patience. Sometimes we get impatient with God. Just like Jacob said, “Surely the Lord was in this place and I knew it not.” The devil’s forces are growing in effectiveness. We need the sixth sense and to know that the presence of God is with us. Jesus has all power in heaven and earth. We have to keep Him with us to be able to fight the devil’s forces. We need old-time Pentecostal revival! With regard to the worldly sins some people clutch in their lives, we can’t just tell someone to “throw that garbage away.” People must realize for themselves what steps they need to take in their lives. The sixth sense that each of us should have will reveal sins to us. And God will help. We are all born incomplete. We all need the presence of the Lord!	Pastor Joseph preached “Our Homeless Saviour” using Matthew 8:14-20. Joseph, the adoptive father figure for Jesus, was by trade a tekton (Greek for hand worker) often translated as “carpenter.” Scholars say that such tektons usually did not own any land, and scholars say that Joseph was likely a lower class worker that labored by hand at menial tasks such as household repairs and building homes out of stone, etc. Jesus was probably raised poor and didn’t have the finer things of this life. Before Adam and Eve sinned, the earth provided food without having to be tilled. After man’s fall, the Lord God graciously allowed that if we till the ground, we can get food. But Jesus owned no land to till! During His earthly ministry, Jesus said he was homeless: “foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.” For us, Jesus went without land, home, wife, and child. He “took our infirmities and bare our sicknesses.” Since Jesus has suffered going without land, home, spouse, and child, why should we suffer such today? We ought to trust God! In the Old Testament, the priestly Levite tribe had no land allocation, yet God provided for them through His people. Trust God! He will take care of us. Consider the lilies; they don’t toil, yet God clothes them. Consider the birds; God feeds them. Are we not more valuable to Him? Yes! Our Saviour will take care of us. He is not homeless now. Heaven has a place prepared for us to be at home with Him, our Lord and Savior!

Note: The answer to last week’s first Bible Trivia Question was: Unwashed hands. Mark7:5 The easier answer was actually “hand worker” but “carpenter” is acceptable too. Both questions were answered by Pastor Joseph and Brother Ramsey.

The story of Adam and Eve was carefully explained in the children’s Sunday School class. Following the story, the children were asked to draw some picture that would illustrate the story. Little Bobby was most interested and drew a picture of a car with three people in it. In the front seat was a man behind the wheel, and in the back seat were a man and a woman. The teacher was at a loss to understand how this illustrated the lesson of Adam and Eve. But little Bobby was prompt to explain: “This is God driving Adam and Eve out of the garden!”

A fellow was very much in love with a beautiful girl. One day she told him that the next day was her birthday. He told her he would send her a bouquet of roses... one for each year of her life. That evening he called the local florist and ordered twenty-one roses with instructions that they be delivered first thing the next morning. As the florist was preparing the order, he decided that since the young man was such a good customer, he would put an extra dozen roses in the bouquet. The fellow never did find out what made the young girl so angry with him.

It’s not too late to give your offering to Christmas For Christ. The time is now. If you have not yet contributed to CFC, please consider giving something today. Thank you!

Thirty states have already passed a Marriage Amendment defining marriage according to the biblical meaning handed down by God: one man + one woman. But WV has yet to do so. Ungodly enemies of the family are targeting WV and other states that have no Marriage Amendment. Homosexual agenda lobbyists and liberal litigation forces including the ACLU know that until WV gets such an amendment, we are vulnerable, and even a single court case or lawsuit brought by them can throw us into costly legal chaos. Folks, now is the time to help! You can do your part to help WV become the next state to pass a godly Marriage Amendment. We know from what happened in California that nothing short of an amendment will work. Go to the above website today, and contact your lawmakers, demanding a WV Marriage Amendment vote in 2009!
