Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Elder Charles Hoskins taught using Genesis 28:10-21. We need to build an altar and pray more whenever we come to hard places in life. Jacob's name means trickster, and he was one. He tricked his father, Isaac, and obtained the birthright of his brother, Esau. Then he was in a hard place running from Esau. God gave Jacob a dream about the promise that comes down to the church today. All families will be blessed, even with all the hard places. Jacob was a rebel and an outcast. God told him that He would not leave him, and that He would bring him back to his country. Jacob awoke out of his sleep. He said, "Surely the Lord was in this place and I knew it not." Sometimes we go through hard places and think God is not with us, but He's always with us. Hold on for the blessing, and for healing. Don't be stressed. Give your hard place to the Lord Jesus. Many people have a hatred for life. We have the promises of God. We need not be discouraged. With joy, hold onto to the promises of God.	Associate Pastor David Harris Jr preached, "It Is Time" using Ecclesiastes 3:3. Sometimes when we go up for prayer, we expect our healing to come right away, but God has a time for everything. Sometimes it happens from the inside out. In God's timing, all things will be done. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me.... To preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18). It's time to be healed! It's time to live for Jesus. He knows what tomorrow holds; we don't. Jesus told the man with the palsy, "Thy sins be forgiven. Rise up and walk." It's time to be healed. It's time to stay healed. We should be so full of the Holy Ghost that we have all that we need to stay strong from one church service to the next church service. If we are healed, if we are straightened up, if we are fixed, it's because Jesus did it. It's only in the name of Jesus that miracles can be done. The power of God moved in an awesome way. Chelsea Lightner was filled with the Holy Ghost in the altar!	Elder Les Benedum, who serves as pastor of our sister church in Weston, preached "God Is Soon Coming" using I Thessalonians 5:1-5. We need to get right with one another because Jesus is soon coming. We are living in the last days. Gabriel's trumpet is going to sound and it won't be long. The Lord touched many. Friday Pastor Eugene Whetzel, from Moorefield, WV was our special speaker for the Youth Explosion. The event was an official rally for Section 1 South. We made new friends of the wonderful people from Moorefield that came with their pastor to the event. All the people worshipped the Lord with all their hearts, and the music was anointed and the preaching was outstanding. Two of Sister Jersey's grandsons, Justin and Steven, were filled with the Holy Ghost in the altar! Praise the Lord! <small>Thanks to all the men that participated in Day 1 of the first bowling tournament for our CAC's Men's Ministry. Day 2 is scheduled for Monday, May 11. We hope to schedule more events in the future. This is wonderful fellowship.</small>

Fun! Bible Trivia ◎◎◎◎◎○○○○ Moderate Difficulty

Why did Paul leave Titus in Crete?
Who was struck blind on his way to Damascus to kill Christians?

Submit your answer to Sis Rhonda at: news@cac.us.com

Note: The answer to last week's Bible Trivia question was: our own understanding found in Prov. 3:5. Congratulations to Sis. Godwin and Bro. Ramsey for answering correctly. The answer to the easier question was: Because he realized that he had denied Jesus.

Fun! HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

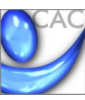

Eight-year-old Nina brought her report card home from school. Her marks were good—mostly A's and a couple of B's. However, her teacher had written across the bottom: "Nina is a smart little girl, but she has one fault. She talks too much in school. I have an idea I am going to try, which I think may break her of the habit." Nina's dad signed her report card, putting a note on the back: "Please let me know if your idea works on Nina because if so, I would like to try it out on her mother."

The minister's little six-year-old girl had been so naughty during the week, that her mother decided to give her the worst kind of punishment. She told her she couldn't go to the Sunday School Picnic on Saturday. Then, when the day came, her mother felt she had been too harsh and changed her mind. When she told the little girl she could go to the picnic, the child's reaction was one of gloom and unhappiness. Her mother said, "What's the matter? I thought you'd be glad to go to the picnic." "It's too late!" the little girl said. "I've already prayed for rain!"
