Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Evangelist Felix Crowder preached "Your Most Valuable Learning" using Acts 2:36-38. Jesus Christ is both Lord and Christ. Save yourselves from this confused generation. We shall receive power after the Holy Ghost is come upon us. The Holy Ghost can fill us, change us and supply all our needs. There is joy and peace in the Holy Ghost. Let's be excited about the Holy Ghost and all that the Spirit does in us. There's something about the Holy Ghost! People might come to church in a worldly state, but the Holy Ghost can change us! The best knowledge you can get isn't what's on your CD players or report cards but what impels you into the Kingdom of God. And that's the Kingdom you can't do without. Jesus can make you free. Don't let the world fool you. It will put you down and take away your dignity and future. Lift up holy hands unto the Lord. Don't hold your fist up to God. Hold up both hands and look up to God. Praise and worship Him!	God's presence was so awesome. Many received healings. Evangelist Felix Crowder ministered to us again. He remarked that there's a time when you have to step out past "Maggie and Mabel" and get beyond your past and say to the natural doctor, "I have a heavenly Doctor who doesn't need a PHD!" Praise God! The more we satisfy Jesus, the more He will satisfy us. We satisfy Him by lifting our hands and praising Him. We don't have to ask for miracles. All we have to do is praise and love Him with all of our heart and soul. Bro. Crowder preached from John 8:31 and Proverbs 23:23. "Buy the truth and sell it not." This truth is powerful! We have purchased something that you can't see but yet you know that it's there. We have the truth. It's not up for resale! There are some things not to be lost: God's love, His healing, His mercy. I love this truth. It may seem to worldly people like I act crazy, but I don't care! Worship the Lord and receive your miracle!	Associate Pastor David Harris Jr preached "It's Time For A Transfer" using II Chronicles 7:14. We who are called by the name of Jesus need to pray and seek God's face. Jesus said "My house shall be called a house of prayer." Prayer moves the Spirit of God. God is calling a church for old-fashioned prayer. We fight everyday against powers and wickedness of this world. We must stand upon God. We must cast down every evil thought and let the mind of Christ be in us. It's good to have fellowship, but Jesus is calling us for prayer. It's time for a transfer! Too many Christians are getting caught up in this world ignoring God and the things of Heaven. The church has often compromised. Too many times God's House of Prayer has become a house of play. It's time for a transfer! We need to humble ourselves, pray, seek God's face and turn from our wicked ways. Make up your mind that you're going to serve God no matter what. Lord, transfer me!

Fun! HUMOR      Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A little boy in the Sunday School kindergarten class got up from his craft and went over to ask one of the adult helpers a question. "Are you a Christian?" "Yes," she replied. "Do you read your Bible every day?" She nodded her head, "Yes, I do." "Do you pray often?" the boy asked next, and again she answered, "Yes." With that he asked his final question: "Will you hold my quarter while I go to the bathroom?"

A Sunday School class was ready for its question-and-answer session. "What is it that we learned from Jonah and the whale?" asked the teacher. A bright kid spoke up and said, "What we learned is that people make whales sick."

Christian Apostolic Church

Community of the Redeemed

Exploring the American Roots of the 20th Century Renewal of the Pentecostal Outpouring of the Spirit!

Charles Fox Parham (June 4, 1873 – Jan. 29, 1929) was an American preacher who was instrumental in the formation of Pentecostalism. Also a movement of independent Apostolic Faith "Missions" (churches) grew across the southern and western US from meetings Parham held. He founded Bethel Bible College (at right) in Topeka, Kansas, operating the school on a faith basis, not charging tuition, depending on God to supply all their needs.

Agnes Ozman (1870 - 1937) was a female student at Parham's Bethel Bible School in Topeka, Kansas. She was considered by many* as "the first to speak in tongues," and her experience sparked the modern Pentecostal-Holiness movement, which began in the early 20th century. (*She was not the first to speak in tongues in modern history, but other earlier outpourings were not as widely known, and her experience became a catalyst of Pentecostal renewal in the 20th century.) Parham and all his other students were also soon filled!

William Joseph Seymour (May 2, 1870 - Sept 28, 1922) was an African American minister and an initiator of the Pentecostal religious movement. He was born the son of freed slaves in Centerville, Louisiana. In 1905, Charles Parham moved his Bible school to Houston, Texas (see right). There, Seymour (who was then a minister in his mid-30s) met Parham and became his student. Although Seymour did not receive the Holy Ghost then, he became convinced that speaking in tongues was the biblical evidence of the Holy Spirit baptism. He was later invited to Los Angeles to try out for a church in need of a pastor. When he preached about tongues there, they locked him out! The Richard Asbury family took him in, and they began daily prayer meetings and Bible study in the Asbury home, located at 214 North Bonnie Brae Street (see right). There, Seymour and the Asbury's were filled! People began to come to the house by the hundreds, and he preached from the porch to an overflowed yard. They needed a larger place to continue the work. They found a run-down building in downtown Los Angeles, located at 312 Azusa Street (see right), and there they had church every day for about 3 and a half years! During the Azusa Street revival, thousands were filled. The "color line" (racism) was washed away by the blood. Many great miracles happened. Missionaries came and went. The fire spread around the world!
