Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Midweek
Evangelist David Bryan preached "The Man In The Middle" using John 19:16-18. Men's hearts are failing them for fear of things coming on the world today. But God is in the middle of it all; He is in control. Jesus is in the midst. The three Hebrew children were thrown into a burning fiery furnace because they wouldn't worship the golden image. When the king looked he saw a "fourth man" walking with them. Jesus was in their midst. Something supernatural is going to see us through the fire and hard times of this life. God is in control of everything. He is worthy of all our praise. We need to submit ourselves more to God. The most important relationship we have is our relationship with God. He is our refuge, strength and help in times of trouble. In the darkest time there shall be light. On the Sea of Galilee in the middle of a storm Jesus said, "Peace, be still." Pray, worship, know, and love God daily. Jesus is in our midst.	Evangelist David Bryan preached "I Must" using Mark 8:31. We do not know what it's like to be truly desperate. To Jesus, His ministry was crucial and imperative. The way He did miracles was a must. John 4:4 says, "He must needs go through Samaria." Why? The woman at the well needed Him there. Despite the rejection and pain He suffered on the cross, it was a must. We must lift Jesus up today. Salvation is not an option. We must be born again. We must all appear before the judgment seat of God. We must have our mind set that we are going to serve God. I must have the Holy Ghost. I must be born again. Press toward the mark of the prize of the high calling in Jesus. It's necessary; it's imperative. When the Shunammite woman's son died she had to get to the prophet of God, Elisha. He was restored. The woman with an issue of blood pressed herself through the crowd so she could touch the hem of His garment. She was healed. Are you fully persuaded today? We must be of the same mind as Jesus.	Elder David Harris preached "God Goes Looking For The Outcast" using Matthew 8:3. If we really want to reach a lost and dying world we need to get back to the basics. "Reach the Outcasts." All His life Jesus was with people no one wanted to be around: The lepers weren't allowed in the cities because of their disease; the woman caught in the act of adultery; the tax collectors. Jesus gave His ministry to these kinds of people. He always "showed up" where the outcasts were. Jesus sees all our imperfections and still desires to make something out of us. We are special to Him. We need compassion to reach out to the lowly, outcast people. We have to become like Jesus. No one would touch the woman with an issue of blood, because she was unclean, and no doctor could heal her. But then she touched Jesus and she was made whole. We were once outcasts but Jesus found us. Praise God!

A minister was walking to church when he passed one of the members working in his garden. "The bells are calling you to church this fine morning," admonished the minister. "What did you say?" asked the member. "Can't you hear those bells calling you to church?" asked the minister. "I'm afraid you'll have to speak a little louder!" said the member. "CAN'T YOU HEAR THOSE BELLS CALLING YOU TO CHURCH?" shouted the minister. "I'm sorry," said the member, "I can't hear you because of those noisy BELLS!"

Before listening to her young patients' heartbeats, a pediatric nurse at the hospital would often fit the stethoscope over their ears and allow them to listen first. One four-year-old boy was awed by the sound. The nurse asked him, "What do you suppose that is?" The child, a regular at Sunday School, answered, "Is that Jesus knocking?"
