Wednesday

Pastor Joseph preached a message entitled "Prophet Margin" using Mark 8:36 for his text. In this verse Jesus said, "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Working for money is a fact of life, but it pales in comparison to working for the Lord with eternity in view. If you focus only on making money, then even if you succeed, you will have sold yourself short! Jesus said (within the same context), "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it." Thirty-one years ago the high school system in Shreveport, Louisiana (our pastor's hometown) was broken, yet tolerated. Schools suffered from unmotivated teachers, low morale, poor academics, and the typical undercurrent of student partying, drugs, alcohol, sinful sex, bullying and manipulation. And while such things may have persisted in some parts of the parish, a precious woman named Ascension Smith made sure there was at least one school that was different. She was the first principal of Caddo Magnet, now one of the best high schools in the nation, as recognized by US News and World Report. Don't waste your life just trying to get money and stuff. Determine to make each endeavor of your life an effort to truly serve the Lord by serving other people. Be servant minded, with a foot-washing "heartitude." Make a difference! T.F. Tenney once said, "We need people reaching for a towel instead of rising for a throne."

Recorded in the scriptures how many blind men did Jesus heal?
When Abraham was about to offer Isaac as a sacrifice, what did he see?

Submit your answer to Sis Rhonda at: news@cac.us.com

Note: The answer to last week's Bible Trivia question was: Melchizedek (found in Genesis 14:18). Congratulations to Bro. David Ramsey for answering correctly. The answer to the easier question was: three men (found in Genesis 18:2).

Fun! HUMOR

Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

Once when my son was very small I sent him to clean his room. Each time he went in he got distracted by all the toys, and nothing got put away. Following some principles I had learned at a recent prayer conference I went in and said to him, "Stephen, what did Mommy tell you to do?" "Clean my room." "And did you clean your room?" "No" he replied quietly. I disciplined him and then helped him to pray and confess his error to God and ask Jesus to help him get his room cleaned. He seemed to respond really well to all of this, and I thought, "Wow, this stuff really works." But Stephen just got down and sat in the middle of the mess, doing nothing. In frustration I asked, "Stephen, what are you doing?" He replied, just as frustrated, "I'm waiting for Jesus to come and help me clean my room!"

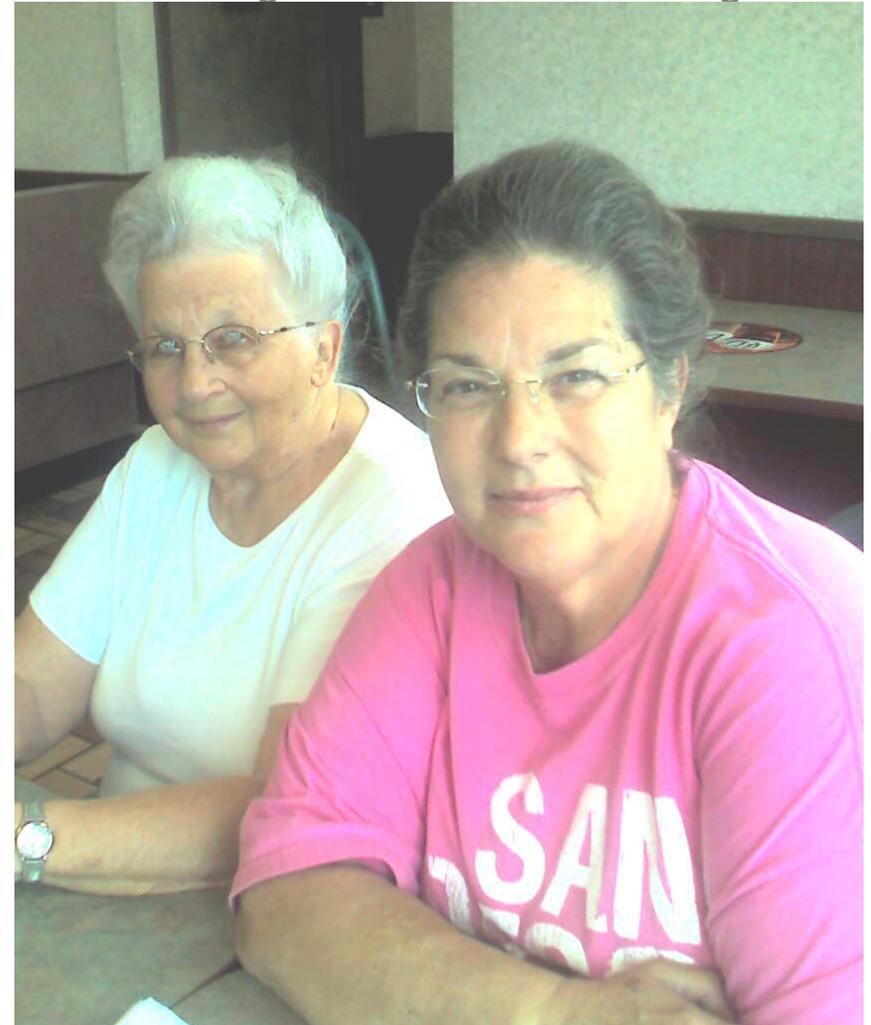

A little boy went up to his father and asked: "Dad, where did my intelligence come from?" The father replied, "Well, son, you must have gotten it from your mother, cause I still have mine."
