Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Our special guest speaker was Pastor Jerald Staten from Washington, DC. He had come to WV to speak at the WV Home Missions seminar on soulwinning (which we were blessed to host at CAC), and then we were blessed to have Brother Staten stay over and preach for us on Sunday morning. The Lord anointed him mightily, and many people were blessed. One person, Holly Turkovich, was filled with the Holy Ghost. It is our understanding that she had never experienced this before. Praise the Lord! While all this was going on here, Pastor Joseph was the special guest speaker in Jewett, Ohio at the first annual Biker Sunday at Harrison Hills UPC, which is led by Pastor Kirt Denney and Bishop J. Hugh Rose. The Lord blessed the event mightily.	Associate Pastor David Harris Jr preached on Sunday night, and God moved upon us in a powerful and wonderful way. The gifts of the Spirit worked among us, we all were touched. The Lord moved on behalf of many for encouragement, strength, and especially for emotional healing. There was a lot of prayer and expressions of Christian love one to another. Elder Harris felt led to ask all those to come forward who had any addictions or anything attacking their mind. God used several different members of the church to prophesy over some. The words the Lord gave were very powerful and helpful. Many were healed, helped and strengthened, and several later related to Pastor Joseph their individual accounts of victory in the service.	Pastor Joseph taught on a continuation of last Wednesday's lesson on finances, illustrating Christian concepts for money management and even life management. Respecting boundaries and working to establish relationships that are mutually beneficial to all is a key component to a godly life, and sincere motives regarding relationships must be at the heart of our use of money. The Bible says that we should "Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law" (in Romans 13:8 NIV). The Bible warns against debt. Some debt may be permitted because of Matt. 5:42, but the command is, literally, not to continue in debt. Love is a debt one can never fully discharge.

Fun! HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A mom was concerned about her kindergarten son walking to school. He didn't want his mother to walk with him. She wanted to give him the feeling that he had some independence but yet know that he was safe. So she had an idea of how to handle it. She asked a neighbor if she would please follow him to school in the mornings, staying at a distance, so he probably wouldn't notice her. She said that since she was up early with her toddler anyway, it would be a good way for them to get some exercise as well, so she agreed. The next school day the neighbor and her little girl set out following behind Timmy as he walked to school with another neighbor girl he knew. She did this for the whole week. As the two walked and chatted, kicking stones and twigs, Timmy's little friend noticed the same lady was following them as she seemed to do every day all week. Finally she said to Timmy, "Have you noticed that lady following us to school all week? Do you know her?" Timmy nonchalantly replied, "Yeah, I know who she is." The little girl said, "Well, who is she?" "That's just Shirley Goodnest," Timmy replied, "and her daughter Marcy." "Shirley Goodnest? Who is she and why is she following us?" "Well," Timmy explained, "every night my mom makes me say the twenty-third Psalm with my prayers, 'cause she worries about me so much. And in the Psalm, it says, 'Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life', so I guess I'll just have to get used to it!"

I recently asked a friend, "Has your son decided what he wants to be when he grows up?" "Yes, he wants to be a garbage collector," my friend replied. I had to think about that one for a moment. "That's a rather strange ambition to have for a career," I finally managed to reply. "Well," said the boy's father, "he thinks that garbage collectors only work on Tuesdays."
