Last Sunday	Wednesday
Pastor Joseph preached "I Love My Church" using I John 4: 20-21. We can't make it to Heaven without going to church. This is a commandment; it is a heaven/hell issue. When problems arise we need to lay the blame on our own carnal nature. Don't blame God and don't blame the church. The church is not perfect, but the church is still of God. The true church preaches against sin, and strives to live above sin. Some people leave the church, playing the blame game and blaming the church, but the truth is. If you leave the church, it reveals you are not of the church. Sin has a deadly effect on a person! If you claim to walk with God, you'd better be walking with your brothers and sisters. If you claim to love God, one statement should always come to your lips: I love my brother! I love my church! No matter how many problems you may have in a church, you still have the Bible and you're still access to God. The church is an institution of God. The church is comprised of God's elect. The church is a place for learning to overcome fears, all the tricks of the devil and for learning to love people in spite of their problems. The church has many imperfections, but there is no imperfection in the church that is worth backsliding over it. I love my church! I love the saints of this church! I love the elders of this church! I thank God for this church! I know that none of us is perfect, from the least to the greatest, but we're doing our best, and trusting God to cover for where we come up short. I love my church!	Elder David Harris Jr. preached using Proverbs 30: 1-4. "Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? Who hath gathered the wind in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in a garment? Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?" God is almighty! There is nothing He can't do. He can step right down in the midst of our turmoil and say "I'm in control". We need to let God descend more and more in our lives. Let God have complete control in your life.

Answer to easier question: Because I have asked him of the Lord (see I Samuel 1).

Fun!	HUMOR	Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com
Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, "I'll bet you don't know what day this is." "Of course I do," he answered as if he was offended, and left for the office. At 10:00 a.m., the doorbell rang and when the woman opened the door, she was handed a box of a dozen long stemmed red roses. At 1:00 p.m., a foil-wrapped, two-pound box of her favorite chocolates was delivered. Later, a boutique delivered a designer dress. The woman couldn't wait for her husband to come home. "First the flowers, then the chocolates and then the dress!" she exclaimed. "I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!
The local preacher was making a visit to a family in the neighborhood. He knocked on the door, and a little 4-year-old boy answered the door. The child, recognizing the preacher, yells to his dad, "Hey, dad! That guy that works for God is here!"
