Last Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph taught a lesson about duty, entitled "The Family of the Unsandaled" from Deuteronomy 25:1-10. Under Mosaic law, if brothers dwelt together and one of them died without a son, the surviving brother was to marry the dead brother's wife and fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to her. If he did not marry her even after the elders of the town talked to him, she was to go to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals, and spit in his face. This world is contrary to God and the things of God. They don't want to be told how they should live and what to do. The whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments. Men don't want to follow God's plan and fulfill their duty today. We are to have our "feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace" (Ephesians 6:15). It is our duty to reach the lost. We should do everything that we possibly can to tell the gospel to others. "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!" (Isaiah 52:7). Do your duty. God has given salvation to us, so we must tell others.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Faith" from I Corinthians 2:1-5, 14-16 & 3:1-23. Whenever you have faith, speak the name of Jesus with boldness and confidence. If we stay sweet in the spirit among ourselves, God will perform awesome miracles for us. Let us not be carnal. Don't let jealousy and quarreling divide us. Firm preaching is needed. The world needs a church that will speak the truth in love, even though carnal people won't ever understand the truths of God because these truths are spiritually discerned. A carnal person can't understand spiritual things. The Lord has called each one of us to be a witness, or messenger. A messenger has to give account for the message he is to deliver. We must all be faithful stewards. We must speak the truth in love and not water it down. Some people just won't receive this truth, but we won't be held accountable for their denial. The world thinks this gospel is foolishness, but it is the power of God unto salvation.

Wednesday

Evangelist David McKemy preached "Pressing the Robe" using Luke 15:18-22. The prodigal son's father kept watching for his son to come home, and he kept his wayward son's robe pressed. Our prodigals who are away from God need to know that we still care for them. We need to let those gone from home know that we still love them and we're waiting for them. We are to carry this gospel to the whole world. Let the wayward know that God still loves them and will take them back. God just wants them to come home. The last thing Jesus did before dying on Calvary was to reach out to one thief on the cross beside Him. While He was dying He reached out for one. How many can we reach while we are living? Keep praying, keep witnessing, keep pressing the robe for those soon to return home.

Resurrection - The Women & the Angel

Find the answer to the puzzle by comparing the individual stones with the wall of stones. When a match is found, transfer the letters to the large stones. Then write the letters on the lines provided.

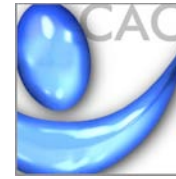

Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at Jesus' tomb. There was a violent earthquake. An angel came to the tomb, rolled back the stone, and sat on it. The soldiers guarding the tomb fainted. The angel told the women to not be frightened because Jesus was alive! What were the women told to tell Jesus' disciples? Solve the puzzle to find the answer.

Jelly Bean Prayer

Red is for the blood He gave,
Green is for the grass He made,
Yellow is for the sun so bright,
Orange is for the edge of night.
Black is for the sins that were made,
White is for the grace He gave,
Purple is for the hour of sorrow,
Pink is for the new tomorrow.
A bag full of jelly beans, colorful and sweet,
Is a prayer...is a promise...is an Easter treat!

A friend was in front of me coming out of church one day, and the preacher was standing at the door, as always, to shake hands. He grabbed my friend by the hand and pulled him aside. The pastor said, "You need to join the army of the Lord!" My friend said, "I'm already in the army of the Lord, Pastor." The pastor questioned, "How is it I don't see you except at Christmas and Easter?" He whispered back, "I'm in the secret service!"
