Last Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph preached "Breaking Out of the Box" using Luke 4:14-29. After fasting and praying for forty days, Jesus returned from the wilderness in the power of the Spirit. He came to Nazareth, his hometown, and they received Him not. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" They could not believe he was the Messiah, because they could not accept a child they saw grow up as God in flesh. They could not think outside the box. Sometimes we have to "preach outside the box." We must teach the truth. Traditions can be built on either truth or error. If they're based on error, we should let go of them. Our godly heritage is more than just a building. It is preaching the truth of holiness, salvation, and godliness. We are going to meet all kinds of people with different backgrounds and cultures, so we are going to have to be renewed in the spirit of our minds to meet the needs of each one of them. Believe God. Trust Him for the miraculous. A great preacher is one who will preach what God's Word says. Live, think, witness, and preach outside of the box. Preach by faith. In Luke 5:18-20, four friends brought a man with palsy to Jesus to be healed. They couldn't get to Jesus because of the multitude. These men went outside of the box in their thinking and lowered the man down to Jesus through the roof. The man was healed. Believe God. Look not on the circumstances; think outside of the box.

Wednesday

Elder David Harris Jr. preached "Bound at the Gate" using Galatians 5:1. We need to stand fast in the liberty where with Jesus has made us free. Do not be bound. God is going to go before us and make crooked places straight. God's Spirit will make it right and lift our burdens. We need to worship Him and Him only. God has done wonders. He has made a way of salvation so that man can be free from this world of sin. "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!" (Psalm 107:21). God's truth will make us free. Don't be bound! Let Jesus make you free. He'll give you the Holy Ghost and deliver you. Don't think that you can live good on your own. Don't think that you finding someone to tell you that unclean living is alright will make your sins alright. Only your repentance and Jesus can wash away your sins. The Apostolic doctrine is real! If we keep ahold of the faith, we will make it through any trials. Jesus has made us free. Let's not be bound.

Grandpa and Billy entered the vacation cabin, keeping the lights off until they got inside to avoid attracting any pesky insects. Still a few fireflies followed them in. Noticing the fireflies before Grandpa did, Billy quietly whispered, "It's no use Grandpa. The mosquitoes are coming after us with flashlights!"
A father wanted to read a magazine, but was being pestered by his daughter. To keep her busy, he tore a sheet out of the magazine that had a picture of the world printed on it. He tore the picture into small pieces and said, "Here, now go into the other room and see if you can put this picture of the world back together again." A few minutes went by and the daughter reappeared and handed him the picture, all correctly fitted together. The father was surprised and asked her how she was able to fit all those little pieces of the world back together again so quickly. "Oh," she said, "On the other side of the paper was a picture of Jesus, and once I got Jesus in the right place, then the world just came together."

The Solution:

Problem: How to protect a carefully loaded truck's worth of unsold fireworks from overnight moisture and potential theft without a tent or night guards (and it's stacked too high to fit in the garage).

Solution: Drive the truck into the storage pod! (Bro Baron's brainstorm!)

(You can see some short video clips about this by visiting the church website at www.cac.us.com.)

On behalf of the church, Pastor J. says "Thank you to all who helped with the fireworks tent! Your work and help are deeply appreciated!"
