Last Sunday AM

Missionary Bernard Suppan and his wife were with us. They are missionaries to Germany and Austria. Bro. Suppan preached from John 4:35 and Revelation 3:8. We are living in the last days before the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Truly the harvest is ripe. We have the truth. We have a testimony. Wherever we are, we need to share our testimony with others. Tell others about a healing you've witnessed. Tell others how God saves and gives peace and joy. It's time to roll up our sleeves and work for the Lord. Get out and knock on doors and share the good news of Jesus. We must sow seeds and trust the Lord for a good harvest. Open your eyes: the harvest is ripe.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached using Isaiah 47:10-11 and Revelation 2:18-23. God is love, yet God is also purely holy and totally righteous. Come to God with repentance. Come to Him with all your sins, weaknesses, and addictions and ask for His forgiveness. He will forgive you and change you. If you won't repent, if you refuse to change, then the judgment of God will abide on you. If you do repent, the mercy of God will abide on you. He is forever merciful to those who will come to Him and repent. Although He is a God of love and mercy, He is also a God of judgment. He will pour His wrath out on those who continue in their sin and will not repent. Abstain from sexual sin. God's Word stresses to us to not fornicate. The word fornication refers to any and all types of sexual sin. If you do fornicate, you are sinning against your own body. The Bible teaches that we should dress modestly, and the reason is because of the tie between immodesty and fornication, for the Bible stresses much more to not fornicate. Dressing modestly is a guard rail to prevent lust which can lead to fornication. There also other guard rails we should all have in our lives. An addiction is anything that has power over you. We must rid ourselves of all sinful addictions, such as sex outside of marriage, alcohol, tobacco, pornography; even anger can be an addiction. If you're in the wrong, repent. Let us serve the Lord in freedom!

Wednesday

Pastor Joseph preached using Hebrews 11:13. Christian vision is seeing through the eyes of faith. Dwell and meditate on a godly goal. We need to delight in the law of the of the Lord and meditate on His law both day and night. Our children should see and hear that we are guided by God. A vision is needed for desired outcomes. When you have a vision, you have something to look forward to. You will work diligently for that outcome. A wise man will hear God's word and apply it to His life. Be a wise man and build your house upon the rock. Develop a Christian vision. God's Word is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path. It tells us both where we are and where we are going. A budget is a plan. You need to prepare your work – look at your finances and think about the vision. Trust in God and work toward financial freedom. God will help you be blessed.

Fun! Kiddie Corner Jesus Chooses Twelve Disciples

Luke 6:12-16 Mark 6:7-13

Crowds followed Jesus from town to town as he taught and healed the people. One day Jesus chose twelve of these followers to be his special helpers.

Find the answers to questions 1 and 2 in the puzzle below. To find the answer to question 1, begin at the top arrow and write down each letter you come to. Then begin at the bottom arrow to find the answer to question 2.

1. What did Jesus do before he chose the 12?

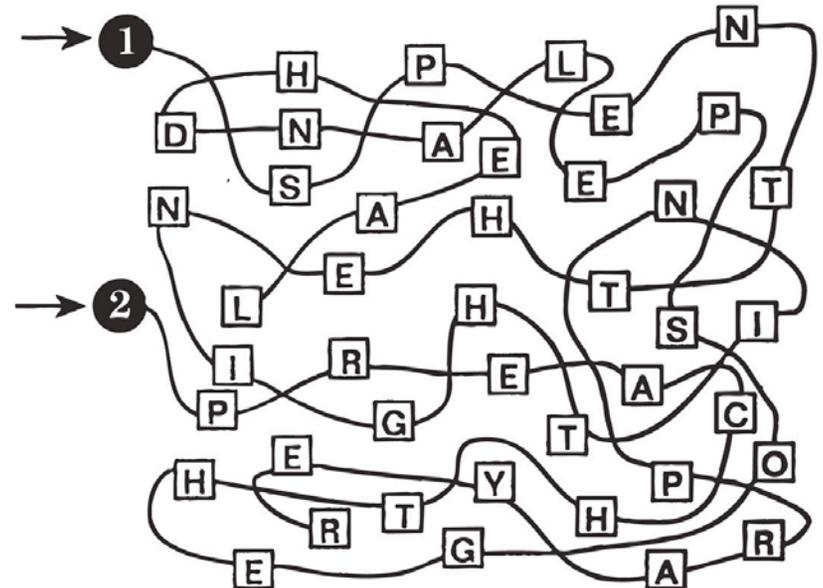

To think about:

What should you do before you make an important decision?

2. What did Jesus tell the disciples to do?

To think about:

What special work has Jesus called you to do?

Fun! Bible Trivia Moderate Difficulty

Why did Jeroboam's wife disguise herself and go to the prophet Ahijah?
Why did Jeroboam build two golden calves?

Submit your answer to Sis Rhonda at: news@cac.us.com

Last week's answer: Jeroboam's hand dried up because he put it forth against a prophet (found in I Kings 13:4).

Answer to easier question: Rehoboam took the advice of the young men (found in I Kings 12:1-14).

Fun! Humor Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

Two elderly ladies had been friends for many decades. Over the years, they had shared all kinds of activities and adventures. Lately, their activities had been limited to meeting a few times a week to play checkers. One day, they were playing checkers when one looked at the other and said, "Now don't get mad at me. I know we've been friends for a long time, but I just can't think of your name! I've thought and thought, but I can't remember it. Please tell me what your name is." Her friend glared at her for at least three minutes; she just stared and glared at her. Finally she said, "How soon do you need to know?"

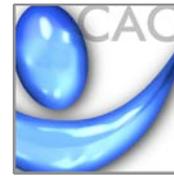

An Ohio fan, a Marshall fan and a WVU fan are climbing a mountain and arguing about who loves their team the most. The Ohio fan insists that he is the most loyal and, then, yells "This is for Ohio!" and jumps off the mountain. Not to be outdone, the WVU fan next professes his love for his team. He screams, "This is for the Mountaineers!" and pushes the Marshall fan off the mountain.
