Last Sunday AM

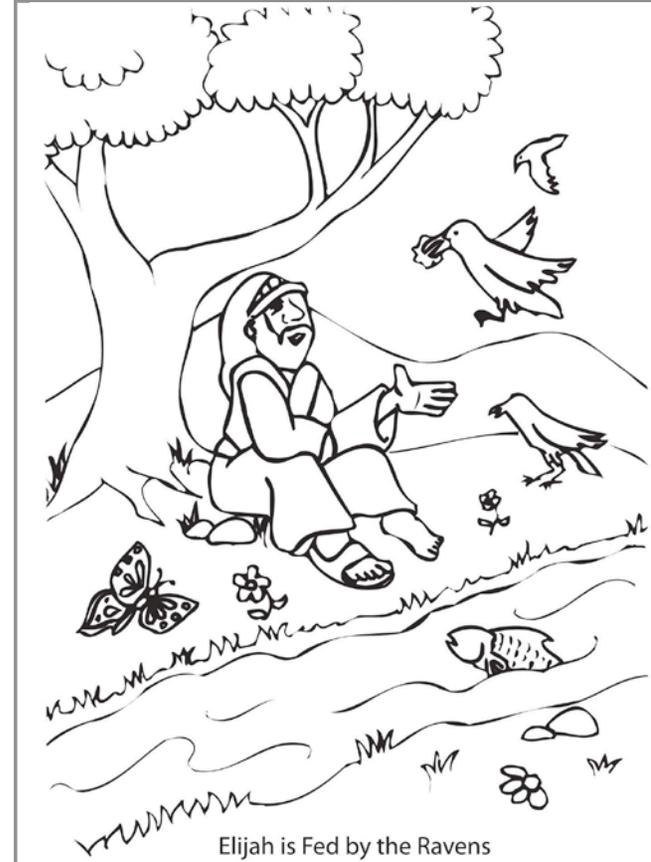

The Sunday School picnic was held at the V.A. Park. An open air service was held at the start of the picnic. It felt so good to raise our hands and praise the Lord with the outside breeze we felt. We thank God for the excellent "air conditioned" day He gave us. The temperature and humidity were wonderful. Pastor Joseph exhorted us to seek God for His calling in our lives. We heard from three young people in our congregation who feel God's calling to preach. Bro. Zach Sandy preached from Luke 4: 6-8. Jesus was tempted just as we are today. When we are tempted, we need to stand and not give in to temptations. Don't fall for the devil's tricks. They will only last a little while. Eternity is forever. Sis. Hannah Sandy conveyed that before she came to God, she didn't believe that God could really love her, and she did not know why things happen like they do. Now God has opened her eyes. She is thankful to God for all He has saved her from. Bro. Rusty Sandy preached from Hebrews 11:1. Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. We need to have faith in God. Trust Him for all things. Lean not unto your own understanding. Finally, Pastor Joseph exhorted all of us to not leave our first love, or to return to our first love if we had left it. He cited the Lord's chastisement of the Ephesian church in Revelation 2:2-5. The Lord sent a message to that church that although He indeed knew their good works, labor, patience, and their love of truth and righteousness, he also charged that they had left their first love. He sent unto them this admonition: "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent." People may know how to court their true love before marriage, but they often fail to continue to show their love for their spouse afterward. The same displays of affection that won the day then, will keep winning the day now. Don't wait for your spouse to die before you give them their flowers. Likewise, the same way in which we sought God with all our hearts while we were first desiring to be filled with the Holy Ghost, is the same kind of godly seeking that will please our Heavenly Bridegroom now. Repent, and do the first works!

Wednesday

There was a mighty outpouring of God's Spirit, with tongues and interpretation in our service this evening. In a word of exhortation, Pastor Joseph read Revelation 12:1-11: "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death." Then all the saints shouted their testimonies to the Lord simultaneously. God moved marvelously in our midst. Many were touched, healed, blessed, encouraged, and strengthened. God's Spirit ministered in our souls in a way that was wonderful.

A preacher, newly arrived to a small country town, needed to mail a letter. Passing a young boy on the street, the preacher asked where he could find the post office. After getting his answer, the minister thanked the boy and said, "If you'll come to church this evening, you can hear me tell how to get to heaven." "I don't know sir," the boy replied. "You don't even know how to get to the post office!"
One evening after dinner my five-year-old, Brian, noticed that his mom had gone out. He looked up and asked, "Where'd Mommy go?" "Mommy's at a Tupperware Party," I reported. Brian looked puzzled. "What's a Tupperware Party?" I figured a simple, honest response was my best approach, "Well, it's where a bunch of ladies sit around and sell plastic bowls to each other." Brian nodded indicating that he understood this curious past time, and then burst out laughing, "C'mon Dad, what is it, really?"
