Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph preached "What the Bible Says About Abortion" from Jeremiah 1:4-5. The Bible does not specifically mention the word abortion, but it has a number of significant things to say about preborn children. The preborn is a person, and it is wrong to murder a person, thus, it is wrong to murder a preborn. A preborn has personal attributes such as joy and the sin-curse. In Psalms 51:5, David wrote, "Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me." And Luke 1:44 says, "For behold, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy." The Bible uses personal pronouns to describe a preborn child. Jesus was a person at the time of conception. Matthew 1:20 shows that the angel told Joseph that "the Child who has been conceived" is "of the Holy Spirit." The preborn are called children. Luke 1:44 states that "the baby leaped in her womb." In the Mosaic Law, preborns are protected from murder by the same punishment as for adults. The preborn are called by God before birth. The preborn are known personally by God just like any other person. Since abortion is murdering a person, abortion is morally wrong.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "My Part in the Kingdom" from Mark 1:1-8. John the Baptist addressed both himself and the Lord Jesus. In Mark 1:8 he stated, "I indeed have baptized you with water [John addressing his part]; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost [John addressing the Lord's part]." We, the church, can reach out to souls like John the Baptist did. God will baptize them with the Holy Ghost. All angels in Heaven rejoice when one soul comes to repentance. All the work we can do—praying, fasting, witnessing, Bible studies, holiness—is worth it if we can reach one soul. Each and every one of us has a part in the Kingdom of God. You may think, "What can I do?" God has a purpose and calling for every one of us. You don't know when someone is watching you. Cheer up a discouraged friend. Be a John the Baptist! Go forth and represent Jesus. Each soul is precious to God.

Wednesday

Ken Ham (via video link) presented a message entitled "Already Gone" regarding how to teach our youth both a biblical worldview, Christian apologetics, and to trust and defend the historicity of Genesis chapters 1-11. Many Christians avoid Genesis 1-11, even though it is the bedrock upon which all of Scripture is based—including the doctrines of sin, death, and salvation. With culture systematically hinting to our children the Bible is a fairytale (with evolution and "millions and billions of years" of supposed evolutionary history presented everywhere from Happy Meal boxes to Disney movies, and from TV cartoons to science textbooks) it is no wonder that most youth raised in churches are not still believers beyond adolescence and into adulthood. It is crucial that we present the biblical truth (the real science, biology, geology, astronomy, anthropology, etc) of the accurate account of ex nihilo creation found in Genesis! Don't let Noah's ark be a "tale"!

Fun! Kids Corner Mary Washes Jesus' Feet

John 12

When people walked along the roads in Bible times, dust would get inside their sandals and make their feet dirty. Therefore it was the custom to wash their feet when they entered someone's house.

Mary decided to wash Jesus' feet for him. But she did not use water. Mary poured some expensive perfume on Jesus' feet. Then she wiped his feet with her long hair. She did this to show her love for him.

What did Mary see when she looked at Jesus' feet? Did she see the dust? Did she see sores and calluses from walking many miles to tell people about God? Maybe Mary thought about the words of the prophet Isaiah.

Solve the puzzle to see what Isaiah 52:7 says.

Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, "I bet you don't know what day this is?" "Of course I do," he answered indignantly, as he slammed the door and drove to his office. At 11 o'clock, the doorbell rang. The wife answered, and there at her front door was a delivery driver. In his hand was a box containing 12 red roses. Later, at 2 pm there was another knock at the door, this time it was a deluxe box of Belgian chocolates. Eventually the husband came home, tired after a hard day's work. His wife greeted him by saying, "First the flowers, then the chocolates. I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!"

Fun! Stan 'N' Isaac The shenanigans never end.

God has brought you this far
 To take you further still,
 Into a future full of promise
 As you focus on His will
 And as you press on in Him,
 Remember, His plan for you,
 For this is your life's purpose
 And the work He's called you to.
