Sunday AM

'Super Church'—what an awesome service as young and old enjoyed the presence of the Lord. Bro. David Claypool presented a puppet show followed by preaching. He used Luke 19:10 as his text: "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." The puppet show portrayed a rich king who became as a common man to seek a treasure. When he had found it, he sold all that he had to purchase the field it was in. King Jesus came to earth as a lowly babe. He gave His all by dying a cruel death to purchase our salvation. Each one of us who repents, is baptized, and filled with the Holy Ghost, can be a part in this treasure. One adult was renewed in the Holy Ghost and one child repented and was seeking the Holy Ghost.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Heavenly CPR" from Genesis 2:7 & John 20: 21-24. God spoke the world into existence, but He manipulated the dust of the earth and "formed" man. He then breathed—or poured His spirit—into this clay sculpture and it became a living soul. Man was given true freedom of choice and he chose to sin. Thus we are cursed from conception; we are spiritually dead even though we're alive naturally. After rising from the dead Jesus met with His disciples. He breathed upon them and told them, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost." These same men received the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost when they heard a sound from Heaven. That sound was God breathing upon them—Heavenly CPR! We don't have to earn the Holy Ghost, only ask in faith, and God will breathe upon us.

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached from Matthew 4:1-10. The devil is at work every day. We have to be strong and take a stand against him. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. We need to show the devil who we are—that we have a relationship with Jesus and we will not give into his tricks. We need to be a sound the people have never heard before. Be a light and help people come to Jesus. Elder Keith Fought preached from Psalm 51:5. Men were all born in sin, yet Jesus has called to us to come out and be separate. When we take on His name in baptism, we become a new creature in Christ. We are a chosen generation, a peculiar people. Show people who you are. Don't be ashamed. You are part of the family of God!

Four-year-old Mitch loved candy almost as much as his mom, Ann, did. He and Daddy had given her a beautiful heart-shaped box of chocolates for Valentine's Day. A few days later Mitch was eyeing it, wishing to have a piece of it. As he reached out to touch one of the big pieces, Ann said to him, "If you touch it, then you have to eat it. Do you understand?" "Oh, yes," he said, nodding his head. Suddenly his little hand patted the tops of all the pieces of candy. "Now I can eat them all."

God has brought you this far
 To take you further still,
 Into a future full of promise
 As you focus on His will
 And as you press on in Him,
 Remember, His plan for you,
 For this is your life's purpose
 And the work He's called you to.
