Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Luke 6:45. The words and actions that we use show people who we really are, “for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh” (see the text verse). We act on what we have in our heart. Don't say, “I love you” to someone, and then turn around and tear him down. We need to be more conscious of taking care of our spiritual lives—pray, attend church, read His Word, and think on good things. We need to be filled up with Jesus and give no place to the devil. When people see us—our neighbors, family, classmates or co-workers—they need to see a godly image in us. Seek ye first the kingdom of God. Every thought that we have must be brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. When a bad thought comes in your mind, don't let it take root. We need to be cautious of the songs we listen to and the TV programs we watch. Are they pleasing to God? We can't be conformed to this world, but must be transformed by the renewing of our mind. We must be different from the world.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached “You Are Not Your Own” from Exodus 19:1-8 & Titus 2:11-15. We are a peculiar people. Peculiar means “separate” or “belonging to an individual.” We are a royal priesthood. We must lay aside every sin and weight and keep ourselves clean. Everything we do, we must do to please God. Even in the beginning God separated the light from the darkness. What fellowship hath righteous with unrighteous? God told Abram to leave his country. He had to separate himself from others. It's time for us to seek the face of God. Be ye holy, even as God is holy. We must walk in the Spirit so we won't fulfill the lusts of the flesh. Be careful what you allow in your life. The devil is smart. If one trick doesn't work, he'll try another one. He'll tell you that no one sees what you do or say. But someone does—Jesus. We are not our own. We must mortify the deeds of this flesh. Everything we think, say or do, do it with Jesus in mind. Examine yourself. What areas in your life do you need to improve? “Save yourselves from this untoward generation” (Acts 2: 40). We need to study God's Word, fast and pray if we want to be close to God.

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached from Exodus 25:1, 8 & 26. Moses obeyed God and built the earthly tabernacle that the Spirit of God dwelled in. When Jesus died on the cross the veil was torn. We are the temple of the Holy Ghost now. The temple of God is holy. We are not our own. We need to glorify God in the way we think, dress, talk and act. We must strive to be more like God.
Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Mark 12:29-31. We must continually grow in our relationship with Jesus. Let us be excited about serving God! Stay on fire for God. Each of us has a responsibility for God whether it be a singer, door knocker, bus driver, or cleaning the church. We are all important to God. Don't get your eyes off Jesus. We need to be totally consumed with Him.

Today is Sanctity of Human Life Sunday 2014

Please sign the petition to join Harrison County West Virginians for Life in support of legal protection for preborn children.

Sadly, this year marks the 41st anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's tragic Roe v. Wade decision in 1973. From then until now, some 57,000,000+ preborn babies have been murdered through abortion in the United States alone. Help us memorialize their deaths, and help us labor to see abortion ended in America!
