Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Be a Reflection of Jesus Christ" from Psalm 19:14. When the world sees us, they should see Jesus. What are we saying with our lifestyle and words? We need to stay full of the Holy Ghost. We, as the church, have a job to tell others about Jesus. We need to let people know that Jesus loves them. They are looking for what we have found. Don't hide what Jesus gave you. We find time to do what we want to do. We need to take time for God. We influence people by our everyday lifestyle. We need to stand on God's Word. What consumes our thoughts? Let our every thought come into the obedience of Jesus. We must be a reflection of Jesus at all times. Let the words of your mouth and the meditation of your heart be pleasing to God. Our whole lifestyle must be pure and holy. We must be like Jesus.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Earth Shattering Praise!" from Isaiah 60:18 & 61:1-3. When Jesus was on the cross, in His humanity He felt utterly forsaken, yet He held to what He knew to be true, and was obedient to the divine plan for our salvation, even unto His death. His obedience revealed God's glory in a way that shook the earth and opened graves. "But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel" (Psalm 22:3). We all have a carnal nature. The flesh rises up and will do what it wants if we allow it. We must walk after the Spirit, not after the flesh. We attend church faithfully. We sing praises, dance, and shout unto the Lord. Yet earth-shattering praise is when we stand up for truth even when our world is falling apart. Don't let any relationship take you out of church. We must remain faithful and praise God when our world is upside down. It's then, when we must take our eyes off of our circumstances and look unto God, rendering Him praise. "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him" (Job 13:15). Praising God in the midst of a storm is earth-shattering praise. Let the mind of Christ be in you, so you will not fulfill carnal appetites.

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached "Keep On Dancing" from I Thessalonians 6:16-18. We will all have trials, but we must keep a joyful spirit and keep on dancing. Trust God and have faith in Him that He will bring you through. If you want victory, keep dancing. What matters most is that your name is in the Lamb's Book of Life. Praise God no matter what you are going through.

Elder Baron Claypool preached "No Excuses" from Exodus 4:10-15 & Luke 14:15-24. How many times has God offered to move but we offered excuses? Excuses—we use other people, our job, the weather, our past. An excuse is of no value in the Kingdom of God. There is nothing more important than doing what God commands us to do. We have God in our life to help us overcome.

I Don't Want To Go

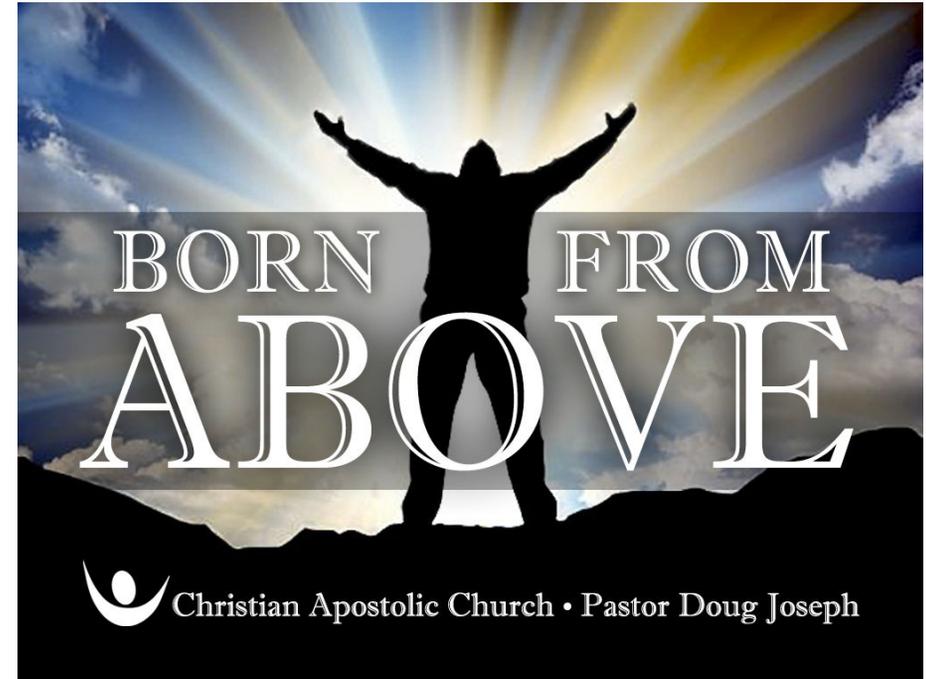

Thanksgiving day was approaching and the family had received a Thanksgiving card with a painting of a pilgrim family on their way to church. Grandma showed the card to her small grandchildren, observing: "The Pilgrim children liked to go to church with their mothers and fathers." "Oh yeah?" her young grandson replied, "so why is their dad carrying that rifle?"

Fun! Stan 'N' Isaac The shenanigans never end.
