Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph continued a 3-part series on "The Sermon on the Mount" with part 2 (from Matthew chapter 6). There are at least two different kinds of perfection; a divine perfection that only God attains to, and a lower level that refers simply to a human being whose current level of maturity and behavior means that their ways are pleasing in God's sight. The last verse of Matt. 5 seems to demand the former, making the Sermon on the Mount amazingly radical. The goal seems unattainable, yet we are still commanded to obey. We need to always strive for perfection. All the things we do, whether almsgiving, prayer, fasting, etc. must be for God's attention—not to be seen of men. We must lift up and praise the name of Jesus. Serving God must be our top priority in this life. We must do some things such as go to work or school, but we must take time for Jesus. Don't let anything in this life be your treasure. Store your treasures up in heaven. We can't serve both God and money. Worry not about material things in this life such as food and clothing. Trust God! Seek the things of God first! If our top priority is serving God, He will take care of us! Join us next Sunday for the conclusion (part 3).

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "The Whirlwind" from Acts 2:1-4, 13:1-4 & II Kings 2:1-12. There was once a time in America when one could walk down the street without encountering nakedness. That's become rare in this perilous hour. Prayer has been taken out of our schools. Our land is full of people with upside-down thinking. Abortion, gender confusion, and same-sex marriage are being called "good." America has turned its back on God. Surely God's judgment is coming! In preparation, the godly person should be thankful that the Holy Ghost makes one separate (holy). We who have repented, been baptized in Jesus name, and have received the Holy Ghost are separate from worldliness. We must keep ourselves hungry for holiness and our mind focused on heavenly things. We must walk, talk, think, look and be different from the world. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world" (I John 2:15). The whirlwind is coming. Which side are you on? God can separate us—lift us out of this world—before His judgment comes.

Wednesday

Elder Brian Murphy Jr. preached "Who Do You Say That I Am?" from Exodus 5:1-2 & Mark 6:1-6, 14 & 53. People wondered about this man Jesus. "Who is this?" Thankfully, God has revealed to His people who He is. He is the Almighty God, the I Am, the Provider, the Healer, the Christ. We need to tell people what God has done for us. We need to lift up our brother/sister.
Elder Les Benedum preached "The Cornerstone" from Matthew 21:42. Jesus must be our cornerstone. If we don't build on Jesus, the solid rock, then we will surely sink. We must build on the true, holy, complete Word of God. We are all bricks in God's church. He has chosen each one of us. We are to be built on the sold rock, which is Jesus, and we are to be lively stones.

A nurse on the pediatric ward, before listening to the little ones' chests, would plug the stethoscope into their ears and let them listen to their own heart. Their eyes would always light up with awe, but she never got a response equal to four-year old David's comment. Gently she tucked the stethoscope into his ears and placed the disk over his heart. "Listen" she said. "What do you suppose that is?" He drew his eyebrows together in a puzzled line and looked up as if lost in the mystery of the strange tap - tap - tapping deep in his chest. Then his face broke out in a wondrous grin and he asked, "Is that Jesus knocking?"

Pro-Life event: Join us for the 17th Annual Rose Dinner!

March 27, 2015 at 6:00 PM
Lakeview Golf Resort and Spa
One Lakeview Drive, Morgantown, WV 26508

West Virginians for Life's 17th Annual Pro-Life Rose Dinner will be Friday, March 27, 2015 at Lakeview Golf Resort and Spa in Morgantown. Keynote speaker is Ryan Bomberger, a passionate advocate for adoption and fostercare who addresses the social issues that prevent people from living a life of purpose. He and his wife Bethany co-founded The Radiance Foundation.

The event, which includes a Silent Auction, starts at 6:00 PM with a reception followed by dinner at 7:00 PM.

Tickets are $50 each or $1,000 for sponsoring a table of eight (8) with proceeds benefiting the West Virginians for Life Educational Trust Fund. Other levels of support are also possible. The Educational Trust is tax deductible and provides literature and resources to educate the public on pro-life issues. For information, call 304-594-9845. To reserve your table or seat(s), complete the online form at the link below, and return it:
