Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "In Search of the Reward" from Hebrews 11:6. We must maintain a personal relationship with God, always striving to improve and become closer to Him. We must pray—talk to God as our closest friend. Read His Word and meditate on it day and night. He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. To diligently seek is to search for Him continually. True, we must daily live, but Jesus should be foremost in our minds. He should dominate our thoughts. When we have a relationship with God, there are certain TV shows we won't watch, certain books we won't read. We can't live like the world does. Our focus must be on Him and Him alone. We must put Jesus first in all things. "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness" (Matthew 6:33). Pleasing God must be the top priority of our life.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Blessed, Broken, and Given" from Mark 6:40-44. Even as Jesus was broken and poured out, so we also should be willing to let God do the same in our lives. We have been blessed with forgiveness, salvation, the Holy Ghost, deliverance from sin's domination, etc. Blessing helps us overcome brokenness. To be broken is "to take up your cross." "And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:27). We are not our own; we have been bought with a price. Jesus called brokenness taking up one's cross. God sets us free from the dominion of sin, not by strengthening our old man but by crucifying him. We must "die daily." We have a joy set before us that helps us endure. "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" (II Corinthians 4:17). It is only as we are blessed and then broken that we are ready to be given.

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Don't Be A Mud Pit" from Psalm 51:10. A mud pit can be likened to a pond. Water doesn't flow through it easy. It is not clear; it is murky and dirty. Yet, in a lake water flows freely. God wants us to be like a lake—to have His Spirit flowing freely through us so He can speak to us. He wants us to be "spiritually minded." When we are "carnally minded" our minds are bogged down by the cares of this life. Our heart is deceitful. It will pull us in different directions. Lot's wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt. Her heart was not with her at that moment. Which is on the inside of you—a mud pit or a lake? Are you spiritually minded or carnally minded? "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Romans 8:6) We need God to touch our heart every day. We must die daily.

The story of Adam and Eve was being carefully explained in the children's Sunday School class. Following the story, the children were asked to draw some picture that would illustrate the story. Little Bobby drew a picture of a car with three people in it. In the front seat was a man and in the back seat, a man and a woman. The teacher was at a loss to understand how this illustrated the lesson of Adam and Eve. Little Bobby was prompt with his explanation. "Why, this is God driving Adam and Eve out of the garden!"

Join us in the National Day of Prayer

Churches often take part in the National Day of Prayer either the Sunday before, or the Sunday afterward. CAC is honoring the event today. However, on the appointed day, Thursday, May 7, you and your family can also participate directly, in addition to the church's participation today. Whichever way you choose to take part beyond today, there is plenty to pray about. Iran is attempting to develop nuclear weapons, and has pledged to annihilate Israel and displays hatred for America. Islamic militants are murdering people across the Middle East, particularly Christians, and their genocidal efforts are spreading to other parts of the world. Here at home Christians are being persecuted by lawsuits and by government officials on behalf of the radical homosexual agenda, and although 30 states voted to protect natural marriage as being only a union of a man and woman (with most of those states actually amending their own constitutions to do so), federal judges have overturned many of those votes, and this has led to the US Supreme Court taking up the case to rule on who gets to decide which definition of marriage will be used by any given state: will it be the people of that state? Or will everyone have a new definition forced upon us by unelected judges?
