Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "All Things New" from II Corinthians 5:17. The arrival of spring is associated with new beginnings. This is what people experience by being born again (born of water, which is water baptism, and born of the Spirit, which is Holy Ghost baptism). Old things are passed away; all things become new. We have a whole new life. God has given us a new heart. We are changed in both character and conduct. The things we used to do we don't want to do anymore. The works of the flesh no longer have dominion over us. We will have a new lifestyle of joy and peace. This does not mean there is an absence of problems, but we will be able to have peace throughout trials by casting all cares and fears to Jesus. The new man conforms to God, and is to be forever changed from worldliness to godliness. We exchange our filthy rags of sin for royal robes of righteousness in Christ. Holy living involves the body, mind, and soul.

Sunday PM

Rev. Everett Davenport preached "Living On The Foundation Of Faith" from Luke 6:46-49 & I Timothy 3:15-16. Without a firm foundation nothing will stand. We must be like a wise man and build our foundation on Jesus Christ. The word of God is the source of that foundation. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Psalm 119:105). We need to study God's word, know it, and hide it in our hearts. If we do this, we will depart from iniquity. God gave us the Holy Ghost to lead and guide us into all truth. We must take time every day to study His word. In God's word we will find His will for our lives, our essence, and truth. His word is truth. Live for God on the foundation of faith.

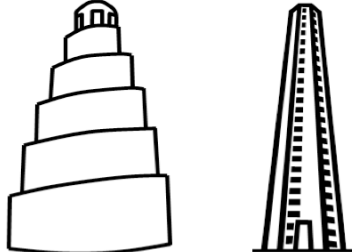

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached "This Is Not The End Of The Story" from Matthew 27:35-37 & 52-53. Never forget the sacrifice Jesus made for you! The beating that He took on your behalf! Your debt has been paid and you can start anew without sin. God did this because He loves you. Jesus dying on the cross is not the end of the story. He is risen! God can change any situation. What looks like a bad story now—looks like there is no way out—will be your testimony later. If you put God first in your life, He will take care of you.
Pastor Joseph preached "Mercy, Not Sacrifice" from Hosea 6:6 & Matthew 9:1-13. Each believer should strive to reach a place of maturity in which he or she will stop repeating a certain sin over and over. We should aim to be so well developed in our life that we avoid more of sin, so that we don't need so much continual application of the sacrifice to atone for sin. We ought to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on pure things that allow us to obey and serve God all the way. It is not the will of God for us to continuously live in a cycle of backsliding and praying through, falling away from righteousness and then back again, over and over. He would rather we mature in our walk with Him and stay in always.

Bill, Jim, and Scott were at a convention together and were sharing a large suite on the top of a 75-story skyscraper. After a long day of meetings they were shocked to hear that the elevators in their hotel were broken and they would have to climb 75 flights of stairs to get to their room. Bill said to Jim and Scott, "Let's break the monotony of this unpleasant task by concentrating on something interesting. I'll tell jokes for 25 flights, and Jim can sing songs for 25 flights, and Scott can tell sad stories the rest of the way." At the 26th floor Bill stopped telling jokes, and Jim began to sing. At the 51st floor Jim stopped singing, and Scott began to tell sad stories. "I will tell my saddest story first," he said. "I left the room key in the car!"

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "All Things New" from II Corinthians 5:17. The arrival of spring is associated with new beginnings. This is what people experience by being born again (born of water, which is water baptism, and born of the Spirit, which is Holy Ghost baptism). Old things are passed away; all things become new. We have a whole new life. God has given us a new heart. We are changed in both character and conduct. The things we used to do we don't want to do anymore. The works of the flesh no longer have dominion over us. We will have a new lifestyle of joy and peace. This does not mean there is an absence of problems, but we will be able to have peace throughout trials by casting all cares and fears to Jesus. The new man conforms to God, and is to be forever changed from worldliness to godliness. We exchange our filthy rags of sin for royal robes of righteousness in Christ. Holy living involves the body, mind, and soul.

Sunday PM

Rev. Everett Davenport preached "Living On The Foundation Of Faith" from Luke 6:46-49 & I Timothy 3:15-16. Without a firm foundation nothing will stand. We must be like a wise man and build our foundation on Jesus Christ. The word of God is the source of that foundation. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Psalm 119:105). We need to study God's word, know it, and hide it in our hearts. If we do this, we will depart from iniquity. God gave us the Holy Ghost to lead and guide us into all truth. We must take time every day to study His word. In God's word we will find His will for our lives, our essence, and truth. His word is truth. Live for God on the foundation of faith.

Wednesday

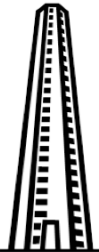

Elder Zach Sandy preached "This Is Not The End Of The Story" from Matthew 27:35-37 & 52-53. Never forget the sacrifice Jesus made for you! The beating that He took on your behalf! Your debt has been paid and you can start anew without sin. God did this because He loves you. Jesus dying on the cross is not the end of the story. He is risen! God can change any situation. What looks like a bad story now—looks like there is no way out—will be your testimony later. If you put God first in your life, He will take care of you.
Pastor Joseph preached "Mercy, Not Sacrifice" from Hosea 6:6 & Matthew 9:1-13. Each believer should strive to reach a place of maturity in which he or she will stop repeating a certain sin over and over. We should aim to be so well developed in our life that we avoid more of sin, so that we don't need so much continual application of the sacrifice to atone for sin. We ought to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on pure things that allow us to obey and serve God all the way. It is not the will of God for us to continuously live in a cycle of backsliding and praying through, falling away from righteousness and then back again, over and over. He would rather we mature in our walk with Him and stay in always.

Bill, Jim, and Scott were at a convention together and were sharing a large suite on the top of a 75-story skyscraper. After a long day of meetings they were shocked to hear that the elevators in their hotel were broken and they would have to climb 75 flights of stairs to get to their room. Bill said to Jim and Scott, "Let's break the monotony of this unpleasant task by concentrating on something interesting. Bill, Jim, and Scott were at a convention together and were sharing a large suite on the top of a 75-story skyscraper. After a long day of meetings they were shocked to hear that the elevators in their hotel were broken and they would have to climb 75 flights of stairs to get to their room. Bill said to Jim and Scott, "Let's break the monotony of this unpleasant task by concentrating on something interesting. I'll tell jokes for 25 flights, and Jim can sing songs for 25 flights, and Scott can tell sad stories the rest of the way." At the 26th floor Bill stopped telling jokes, and Jim began to sing. At the 51st floor Jim stopped singing, and Scott began to tell sad stories. "I will tell my saddest story first," he said. "I left the room key in the car!"

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "All Things New" from II Corinthians 5:17. The arrival of spring is associated with new beginnings. This is what people experience by being born again (born of water, which is water baptism, and born of the Spirit, which is Holy Ghost baptism). Old things are passed away; all things become new. We have a whole new life. God has given us a new heart. We are changed in both character and conduct. The things we used to do we don't want to do anymore. The works of the flesh no longer have dominion over us. We will have a new lifestyle of joy and peace. This does not mean there is an absence of problems, but we will be able to have peace throughout trials by casting all cares and fears to Jesus. The new man conforms to God, and is to be forever changed from worldliness to godliness. We exchange our filthy rags of sin for royal robes of righteousness in Christ. Holy living involves the body, mind, and soul.

Sunday PM

Rev. Everett Davenport preached "Living On The Foundation Of Faith" from Luke 6:46-49 & I Timothy 3:15-16. Without a firm foundation nothing will stand. We must be like a wise man and build our foundation on Jesus Christ. The word of God is the source of that foundation. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Psalm 119:105). We need to study God's word, know it, and hide it in our hearts. If we do this, we will depart from iniquity. God gave us the Holy Ghost to lead and guide us into all truth. We must take time every day to study His word. In God's word we will find His will for our lives, our essence, and truth. His word is truth. Live for God on the foundation of faith.

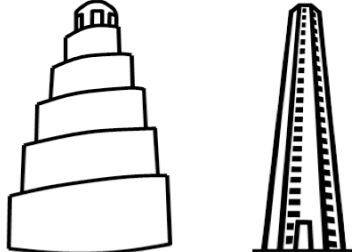

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached "This Is Not The End Of The Story" from Matthew 27:35-37 & 52-53. Never forget the sacrifice Jesus made for you! The beating that He took on your behalf! Your debt has been paid and you can start anew without sin. God did this because He loves you. Jesus dying on the cross is not the end of the story. He is risen! God can change any situation. What looks like a bad story now—looks like there is no way out—will be your testimony later. If you put God first in your life, He will take care of you.
Pastor Joseph preached "Mercy, Not Sacrifice" from Hosea 6:6 & Matthew 9:1-13. Each believer should strive to reach a place of maturity in which he or she will stop repeating a certain sin over and over. We should aim to be so well developed in our life that we avoid more of sin, so that we don't need so much continual application of the sacrifice to atone for sin. We ought to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on pure things that allow us to obey and serve God all the way. It is not the will of God for us to continuously live in a cycle of backsliding and praying through, falling away from righteousness and then back again, over and over. He would rather we mature in our walk with Him and stay in always.
