Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph preached "Christ Our Passover" from I Corinthians 11:17-34. The Jewish Passover lamb, without spot or blemish, foreshadowed the better and final Passover Lamb, Jesus Christ. Through His sinless life and sacrificial death, Jesus became the only One capable of giving us a way to escape eternal judgment and a sure hope of eternal life. Jesus is "without blemish"—completely free from sin. We are to memorialize His death when we partake of the Lord's Supper. During the time of the Mosaic Covenant, a Gentile (non-Israelite) could obtain salvation by gaining Israeli citizenship, and from then on eating only clean meats. The concept of clean and unclean animals is symbolic of clean (saved) people and unclean (unsaved) people. By contrast, during the New Covenant age, an "unclean" Gentile can become saved (clean) without having to become Jewish, which is symbolically like adding an unclean animal to the "clean meats" list. God actually does this for Gentile believers in Jesus when we receive our food with prayer and thanksgiving, and thus at every meal we see a symbol of our salvation in the foods we eat.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "The Mount" from Hebrews 12:18-29 & Exodus 19:1-14, 20-25. Moses set boundaries at Mt. Sinai for his people. We need to set boundaries in our lives, which should be far from the world. Set them far from the mountain of death so you will not be in danger of being destroyed. The Lord is a consuming fire! God's voice was so terrifying and awesome to the people that they didn't want to hear it. Yet we need the voice of God in our lives. When sin does abound, the voice of God will be so terrifying to us that we will repent. God is too holy for us to enter His presence full of sin. This is the contrast between "believing" without obedience and actually obeying the gospel. It is when you obey the gospel through repentance, water baptism and receiving the Holy Ghost that you don't come to the mountain of death but to the mountain of Zion. We must live holy and set apart from this world. We need to think about all we do with eternity in view!

Wednesday

Elder JT Sandy preached "Blessed Be Your Name" from Job 1:6-12 & 21. Job lost almost everything he held dear. He was reduced to nothing, yet he said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." He did not lose his faith in God. Even though he had been afflicted and had been given advice to curse God, Job remained faithful to God. We are a blessed people.

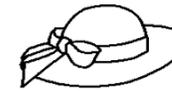

Pastor Joseph read Revelation 3:7-13. We need to lay aside our differences and get along with each other. Being at peace with people is part of true holiness. An emulsion is when items that "don't mix" actually do. We must form an emulsion.

While assembling furniture, Liz asked her friend's six-year-old son, Ricky, to bring her a screwdriver. "Do you want a 'Daddy' screwdriver or a 'Mommy' screwdriver?" Ricky politely inquired. Confused by the question, Liz responded with, "Bring me a 'Mommy' screwdriver." Ricky returned and handed her a butter knife.

Fun! Stan 'N' Isaac The shenanigans never end.
