Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Love Not The World" from Colossians 3:1-2. We are allowed to be blessed and have nice things but remember these things are temporary. We must not get too comfortable with the world or it will sneak in on us. Pleasures of this life will start to feel like this is ok or that won't hurt us. We must be very careful. Spend more time in prayer. Attending church and coming together in unison is required so we won't become numb to sins of this world. When we don't fellowship, things of the world will creep in. We must not get all wrapped up in the things of this world. But rather, we should keep our minds in heavenly places. "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Colossians 3:2). We often say we love God, but do we show it? When we are truly in love with God we won't care what the world thinks. Show God that you love Him by having a devoted prayer life, by living a holy life, by coming to church, by doing Bible studies, and by sharing your testimony, etc.

Sunday PM

Missionary Robert Dame preached from John 1:42-45 & Judges 3:31. We must keep the fire burning. If the fire goes down there is nothing left but ashes. Stay on fire for God. The Holy Ghost is just like fire shut up in our bones. It doesn't matter where you are in life or what your education is, God can and will use you. People marveled at the boldness of Peter and John because even though they were ignorant and unlearned men, all could tell they had been with Jesus (Acts 4:13). They spent time with the master so they had a "master's degree." Bro. Dame spoke of various missionary experiences. Everyone needs Jesus. It doesn't matter who one is or what he has done. It is our job to lead them to a loving Saviour.

Wednesday

Elder JT Sandy preached "What Are The Odds?" from Matthew 14:13-21 & John 14:12-14. Jesus is the One who fed the multitude with five loaves and two fish, the One who healed blind eyes, and the One who calmed the storm. A woman pressed through the crowd to touch the hem of His garment because she knew she would be healed, and she was instantly healed. There is nothing impossible for Him to do. Men heard of Him and said, "Where is He?" Even when the odds say it's hopeless and "impossible," our God can do it! When odds seem dim in your life, turn to Jesus. He can give healing, peace, or whatever you need. Elder Charles Hoskins read and commented on Hebrews 10:23. We must hold fast to the profession of our faith. Don't give up – don't give in, but rather continue your walk with God.

The summer holiday was over, and young Jack returned to Wicor school. Only two days later his teacher phoned his mother to tell her that Jack was misbehaving. "Wait a minute," his mother said. "I had Jack with me for six weeks and I never called you once when he misbehaved."

Nathan came home from his first day at school. His mother asked, "What did you learn today?" He replied, "Not enough. I have to go back tomorrow."

Personal update from Bishop David Hudson

We have done 13 treatments since we have been here and have seen favorable results. The only side effect that I am challenged with is constipation, and I had that before I came. It comes from the morphine medication that I've been taking. Certainly a challenge to say the least. We are scheduled to return back to WV next Saturday, the 20th.

Without any question we feel it has been the right thing for us to make this journey. We have been able to determine the challenge that Sister Hudson has had with mini-strokes that did not show up in earlier testing in Morgantown. After much testing it has been determined that everything has been coming from too much stress. She certainly has had her share of it, which of course makes me feel badly, as I know I have been the source of that stress.

We are still doing our best to press forward, trusting and believing God, and depending upon the prayers of the faithful and righteous. The only thing we know is that God knows all things. He is the potter and we are the clay. Your continued prayer means everything to us. Thank you is such a simple word but it conveys our most heartfelt feelings toward each of you and your family. Only God knows what is good for us but we will continue to do our best.
