Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Just Because" from I John 4:19 & Mark 12:30. Why do we really love God? Just because. Just because we choose to. God robed Himself in flesh and became the ultimate sacrifice for my sins. He called me out of darkness, and He desires to have a relationship with me. Communication is really important to a relationship. To communicate you talk and share things—your victories and your disappointments. You must also listen. That is the type of intimate relationship that God desires. We must communicate with Him at all times—when we're on the mountaintop and when we're down in the valley. Don't get distracted by the cares of this life and neglect God. Sometimes God will let a problem come in our life to get our attention. Our relationship with God is the most important thing in life. Cares of this world are just temporary. You must "set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Colossians 3:2). Read and study God's Word. Give yourself wholly to Him. Stop everything else and just listen to Him. We must mature until we love Him with our heart, soul, mind, and strength and, then, press on.

Sunday PM

Bro. Jim Curley preached "Through It All" from Psalm 20:7. A good day is any day in the presence of the Lord. Thank God when you're facing one trial after another one. Every trial we face makes us trust Him more. He is always there for us even when we don't think He is. By trusting in Him you can overcome anything even though the situation may seem hopeless. There is nothing that God can't do. "Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God" (Psalm 20:7).

Wednesday

Jr. Elder Caleb Colombo preached from Matthew 17:20-21. It only takes a little bit of faith like a mustard seed to move mountains. A mustard seed is very tiny but it grows to be a plant of significant size. We can see miraculous things happen if we have faith and pray and fast.

Elder Hannah Sandy preached "The Horns Of The Altar" from I Kings 1:50-53. Adonijah feared for his life when Solomon became king. He ran and caught hold on the horns of the altar. We must listen when our pastor talks to us and not ignore him. We can't get by doing our own thing. The altar is a place of safety. We need to get to the altar. God will forgive us. When we grab hold onto the horns of the altar, we must change our life. Then we can intercede for souls to come to God.

On a car trip, my grandparents stopped at a roadside restaurant for lunch. There on a table Grandma left her sunglasses, which she didn't miss until she and Grandpa were back in their car on the highway. By then, they had to travel some distance before they could find a place to turn around. Grandpa fussed and complained, but gradually quieted down as they neared the restaurant. As he got out of the car it was in a humble voice that he said, "Well, I guess while I'm in there I might just as well get my hat."

Fun! Stan 'N' Isaac The shenanigans never end.
