Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Pure And Undeified" from Matthew 15:22-28). We are not to be ashamed of the Gospel of Christ. The world is looking for what we have regardless of how tough some people seem. Many are looking for peace, answers or an escape from their problems. We can help others if we show ourselves pure and undeified. We must stand up and proclaim the truth to others. We are to "present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God" (Romans 12:1). "Be not conformed to this world" (Romans 12:2). We must exchange these filthy rags of sin for the royal robes of righteousness. Let others see a difference in you. It is the church's responsibility to tell the world that Jesus is the answer. We must have our daily prayer time, our Bible studies and our fellowship with God and His people. These will help us to stay pure and undeified.

Sunday PM

Sis. Hannah Sandy preached " In The Midst of Out Circumstances" from Genesis 29:16-20. Sometimes our lives turn out in a much different way than what we had planned. We don't know how to fix our circumstances. Leah was a good wife who was thrust into a situation. It made her feel broken and utterly alone. She had no way to see what God was doing in her life – that her son was part of the bloodline of Jesus Christ. Just like her life had a purpose, your life has a purpose and a plan. You may not understand, but hold on and never give up hope.
Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Catch The Vision" from Proverbs 29:18 & Acts 2:14-17). Just as Joel prophesied that God would pour His Spirit out on all flesh, it happened in Acts 2. We need to catch a vision for our church. God has given a vision of great revival for our church. It is just not the job of the pastor and the elders to catch the vision but every saint of God. "The word of our God shall stand for ever" (Isaiah 40:8). His word shall come to pass. We need to grab ahold of what has been prophesied to this church. Catch the vision! We have what people need. And that is Jesus.

Wednesday

Jr. Elder Caleb Colombo preached "With Me In Paradise" from Luke 23:39-43. In the Old Testament you had to be a high priest entering into the Holy of Holies to feel the presence of God. Now we are blessed because of the death of Jesus that we can come into His presence everyday. We must only stay strong and faithful.
Elder Zach Sandy preached "Rejected But Anointed" from I Samuel 16:1,6-13. David was, in a sense, rejected. He wasn't even brought forth at first when Samuel came to anoint one of Jesse's sons to be king. God sees us differently than others. We can see a failure in someone but God sees the next king of Israel. God desires to have a relationship with us. We must talk to Him everyday and let Him talk to us everyday. We must seek Him in prayer daily. It doesn't matter what others think of you. It matters what God thinks of you. All of Israel was saved because one young person listened and did what God called Him to do.

It was the final round of the "$64,000 Question." Only three contestants remained: an Englishman, a Texan, and an Arkansan. Their question: finish the following song title and spell the answer: "Old Macdonald had a _____." The Englishman went first and said "estate, e-s-t-a-t-e." The announcer said, "Sorry, wrong answer, but correct spelling." Meanwhile the Arkansan was going nuts, so excited he could not control himself. The Texan went next and answered, "ranch, r-a-n-c-h." The announcer said, "Sorry, wrong answer, but correct spelling." The Arkansan was jumping up and down, so excited he was almost screaming. The announcer turned to the Arkansan and asked, "For $64,000, what is the answer?" The Arkansan answered, "farm, e-i-e-i-o." The announcer said, "Sorry, right answer, but incorrect spelling!"
