Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin spoke about the Beatitudes, from Matthew 5:3-11. Most of life's problems and situations are minor and simply don't effect eternity. If we let ourselves worry about such matters they will fester into something that will destroy us. Our relationship with God is so important. Only what we do for Him truly matters. "Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). God wants us to be humble and poor in spirit. To be poor in spirit is to recognize that we are nothing before God. It is to know that we have absolutely nothing of eternal worth to offer God. We must be poor in spirit and repent of our sins. God loves us, chose us, and wants to share a relationship with us. We must represent Him. It is so important to hear the voice of God. He will instruct and lead us. We must not get distracted by the mundane problems of life, but rather seek after God. He is the only One who can help us.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Pass Me Not" from Genesis 18:1-3 & Mark 10:46-52. Jesus wants us to cry out to Him for a miracle. He's a busy Savior, yet He will stand still and focus on us, if we will just cry out. When folks have good health and money, they may think they don't need God, yet we need Him always. Mark 10 records that Jesus went into Jericho, and then went out, yet there is nothing in between—only a colon. No preaching or miracles are recorded. The people were well off and "didn't need Him." Yet outside the city, Bartimaeus, a blind man by the highway, cried out for help and Jesus stood still. When he approached, he cast away his beggar's garment. We must cast away our old "victim" mentality and live for God. Your situation may seem hopeless, but Jesus can work miracles. Jesus came to seek and to save those who are lost. We should have the same goals. We need to care about reaching the lost. Don't let Jesus pass by you or them.

Wednesday

Elder Matt Anderson preached from Leviticus 21:1-3. We must be holy and without blemish. We must be a people set apart from the world, not just on Wednesdays and Sundays, but every day. Things of the world will try to distract us, but if we pray, read our Bible, and keep our mind in heavenly places, then God will give us power to stay true to Him.
 Elder Rust Sandy preached from Psalm 95:1-7. We have an Almighty God! Let us sing praises unto His holy name. God forgives our sins. He heals ours bodies. He is ever faithful to us. Let us not forget His many benefits to us. We can't fathom the many mighty acts of God. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord! Praise Him even when you have troubles. Then truly God will bless you.

Enlistment
 Having passed the enlistment physical, Jon was asked by the doctor, "Why do you want to join the Navy, son?" "My father said it'd be a good idea, sir," he replied. "Oh? And what does your father do?" asked the doctor. The recruit responded, "He's in the Army, sir."
