Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Preparing For The Wedding" from Matthew 25:1-13. We must prepare for the return of Jesus Christ and make sure we have a pure relationship with Him. We must pray, study God's Word, attend church services, and be involved in building up God's Kingdom. Some may say, "I do these things." Yet, is that enough? We shouldn't listen to other people gossip. Be careful of which TV shows are watched and which books and magazines are read. Everything and everybody around us influences us. We must be careful of who we associate with, so that their ideas and attitudes don't seep into us and take root. The church is a place to come to be nourished or to minister to someone else. We need to do the things that will enhance our relationship with God. Seek to do things that please God. We will start getting stronger and closer to Him. We need to be in a relationship with God where we can talk to Him but, also, listen to what He says to us. Trust God. Whenever the devil comes to tempt us, we have power to resist him because we have a relationship with God. Prepare for the wedding!

Sunday PM

Evangelist Jerry Holland preached "Miracles Never End" from Hebrews 13:8. God has heard every time that we've prayed, and if we will just believe, it will be answered. When you pray, speak faith. Speak words with an attitude that enables God to move. Thank God that He's taking care of the situation. You will never ask God to do something in your life if you don't think He can do it. He will only move when you let Him. Everything you do, do it with Jesus. Let Him be with you all day long, while you're working, playing, or just resting. If we ask anything in His name, He'll do it. We must put God first in our lives and have faith in the miraculous things He can do for us. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Miracles never end! God is, "able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think" (Ephesians 3:20). We have to believe that God is able to do miracles. We need to have an expectation that God is going to do great things for us, and He will. Don't put any limits on God. He can do the impossible!

Wednesday

Elder JT Sandy preached "Headed to the Racetrack" from Mark 6:45-57. Too often our minds are distracted with everyday events or what someone said to us when we are in church. Our minds can be filled with so much junk that we can't enter into the presence of God. We look right, then left, all the while missing that God is right in front of us! The cares of life can have us so filled up that we can't fit God into our busy schedule. Don't let Jesus pass you by. Cry out to Him!
Elder Baron Claypool preached "Listening to the Voice of God" from I Samuel 3:1-10. God speaks to us in different ways: a nudge or impression, dreams, visions, sometimes in an audible voice, and always by His written Word. We can only hear God speaking to us if our focus is on Him. We must not let the everyday things of life distract us. We must not miss hearing the voice of God.

My two-year-old cousin scared us one summer by disappearing during our lakeside vacation. More than a dozen relatives searched the forest and shoreline, and everyone was relieved when we found Alex playing calmly in the woods. "Listen to me, Alex," his mother said sharply. "From now on when you want to go someplace, you tell Mommy first, okay?" Alex thought about that for a moment and said, "Okay. Disney World."
